This is Carolina Football

The University of North Carolina is the nation's first public university, established in 1789. It is ranked the fifth-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's "Best Colleges" guidebook.

The University of North Carolina is located in the town of Chapel Hill, which has often been called "the perfect college town." Franklin Street, which runs through the heart of downtown Chapel Hill, features many restaurants and shops and is the location of several athletic celebrations and the annual Halloween party.

North Carolina ranks 1st among major U.S. universities – for the 6th time in 8 years – in the percentage of African-American students in the first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education. UNC is first among public universities combining great academics and affordable tuitions, according to Kiplinger's Financial Magazine.

Carolina has more than 600 different student organizations. These organizations plan activities, programs and services that address a wide span of interests. These organizations include pre-professional, activist, cultural, fraternity, honorary, international, media, religious, service, special interest, sports and recreation and student government.

Carolina has been honored by the AFCA for graduating more than 70 percent of its football student-athletes for each of the past four years. Carolina's NFL graduation rate is nearly 70 percent.

North Carolina's coaching staff has experience on all levels, including high school, college and the NFL. Seven of the nine coaches have coached in the NFL, six have been a coordinator in either college or the NFL and five have head coaching experience.

According to a 2006 Wall Street Journal story, North Carolina ranks 10th in the country in producing NFL players. Last season, Carolina had 29 NFL players, including three Pro Bowlers - DE Julius Peppers, TE Alge Crumpler and C Jeff Saturday.

Former Tar Heels Jeff Saturday and Dexter Reid earned Super Bowl titles after helping lead Indianapolis to a win over Chicago in Super Bowl XLI. Saturday is the Colts' starting center.

North Carolina has been to 25 bowl games and has won six of its last seven postseason games.

North Carolina Tar Heels

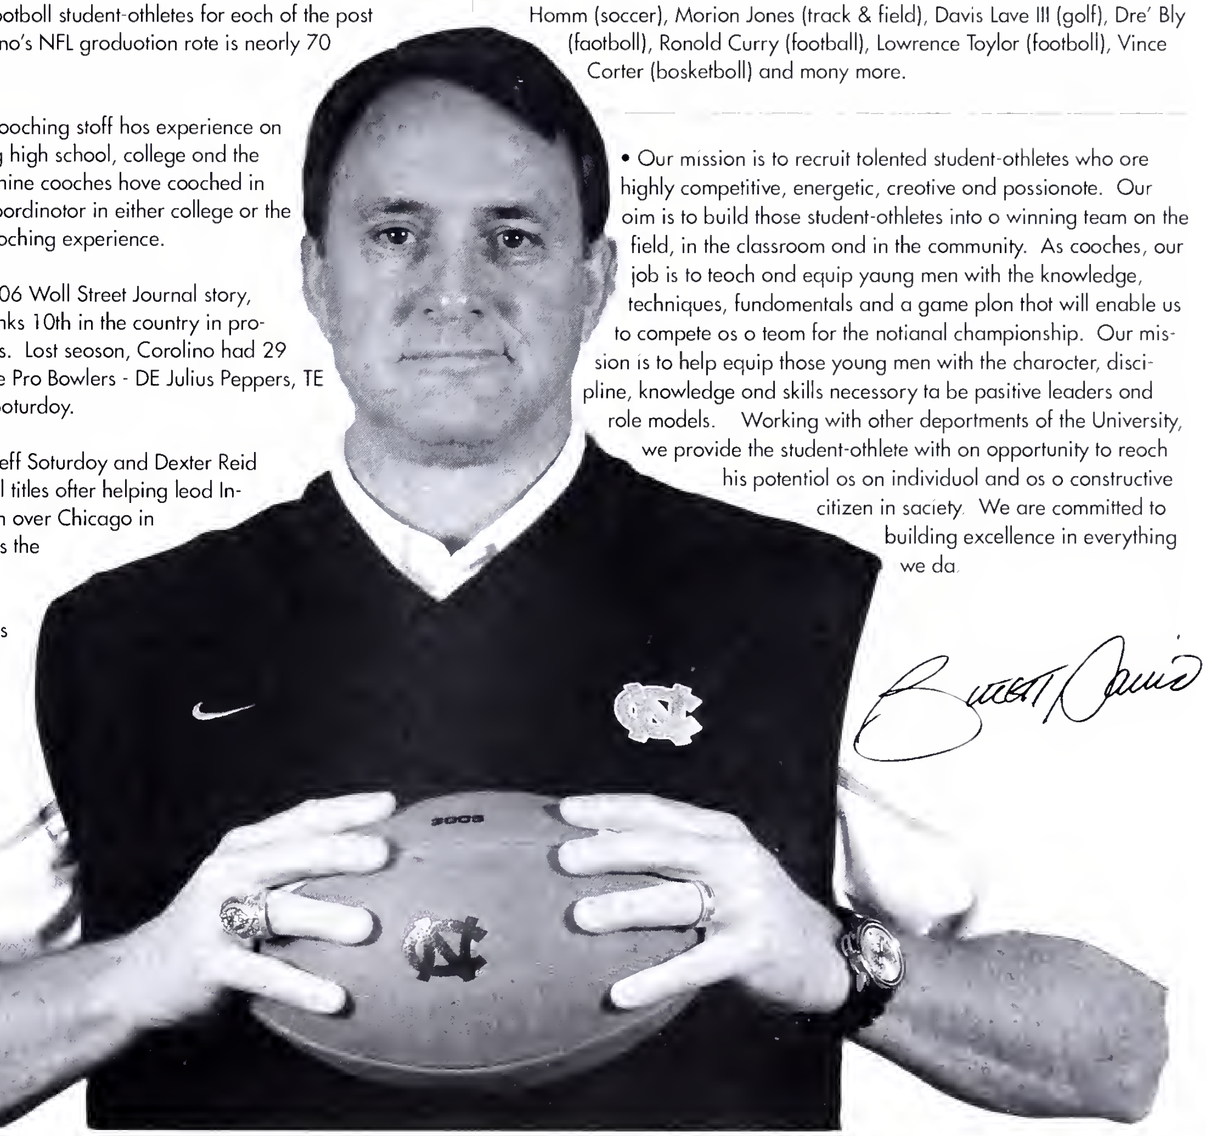
Carolina has an outstanding walk-on tradition. Last season, three former UNC walk-ons played in the NFL, including linebacker David Thornton, deep snapper Greg Warren and wide receiver Wallace Wright.

North Carolina is a charter member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, which began in 1953. The league now includes 12 teams and is the nation's winningest bowl conference.

The Carolina Leadership Academy, the first program of its kind in college athletics, provides comprehensive and cutting-edge leadership development programming for all student-athletes.

The Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History opened in 2004, becoming one of the few such facilities nationwide combining cultural programs, research, community service, teaching and learning under one roof. Funded by private donations, the Stone Center contains classrooms, a 10,000-volume library, seminar rooms, an art gallery, dance studio and spaces for performances, lectures, meetings and offices.

Carolina has won 37 national championships in five different sports and 51 individual national championships. Carolina's athletic alumni include Michael Jordan (basketball), Julius Peppers (football), Mia Hamm (soccer), Marion Jones (track & field), Davis Love III (golf), Dre' Bly (football), Ronald Curry (football), Lawrence Taylor (football), Vince Carter (basketball) and many more.



• Our mission is to recruit talented student-athletes who are highly competitive, energetic, creative and passionate. Our aim is to build those student-athletes into a winning team on the field, in the classroom and in the community. As coaches, our job is to teach and equip young men with the knowledge, techniques, fundamentals and a game plan that will enable us to compete as a team for the national championship. Our mission is to help equip those young men with the character, discipline, knowledge and skills necessary to be positive leaders and role models. Working with other departments of the University, we provide the student-athlete with an opportunity to reach his potential as an individual and as a constructive citizen in society. We are committed to building excellence in everything we do.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Atlantic Coast Conference championship game will be held Saturday, Dec. 1, 2007, in Jacksonville, Fla., at Alltel Stadium. The Coastal Division winner will face the Atlantic Division winner on ABC at 1 p.m.

NIKE

The University of North Carolina and Nike extended their agreement for eight more years beginning in July 2002. The agreement provides each varsity team with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other product. It also provides $100,000 annually to the Chancellor's Academic Enhancement Fund for undergraduate teaching and $100,000 annually to the athletic department to reward Olympic sport programs and coaches for academic and athletic excellence.

2007 Preview — North Carolina Tar Heels

Head Coach Butch Davis ushers in a new era of Carolina football on Sept. 1 when the Tar Heels kick off the 2007 season against James Madison at Kenan Stadium. Davis, who has coached in 11 postseason bowl games, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and won two Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys, looks to revive a North Carolina program that has struggled in recent years.

"I think North Carolina has all the ingredients to become a national championship program," says Davis. "However, it takes time to build a winning program and it's not going to happen overnight. It's a building process."

The challenge confronting Davis and his staff is made even more difficult by the fact that the Tar Heels will field one of the youngest teams in the country in 2007. Only 10 scholarship seniors return, and of the 85 players on scholarship, 62 are underclassmen (73 percent). Davis takes over a program that did not have any all-conference selections last year for the first time since 1968 and was shut out of the NFL Draft for the first time since 1970.

Despite having just five weeks to recruit, Davis and his staff did an excellent job re-stacking the cupboard, inking a consensus top-20 class that included several high school All-Americas and the nation's top defensive prep player, Marvin Austin. Several of those incoming freshmen will have an opportunity to play immediately. Add those talented youngsters to a group of 20 players who were redshirted a year ago, and Carolina has a solid nucleus for the future.

"Everything has been even better than I thought it would be," says Davis. "Recruiting was outstanding and some players we thought might go other places came here. Spring practice was enjoyable and productive. And, the Carolina fans have been great in their support of me, my staff and this program."

This year Carolina's strength should rest on its defensive and offensive lines.

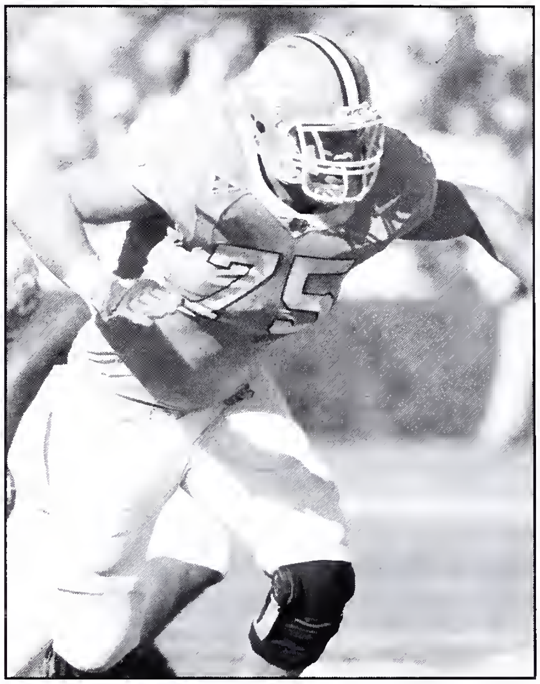
"It's rare to come into a program that is rebuilding and have so many talented defensive and offensive linemen," he says. "I'm excited about those players and the depth we have in the recruiting class."

The Tar Heels boast three senior starters on the defensive line, including tackles Kyndrous Guy and Kentwan Balmer and end Hilee Taylor. Those three have combined to make 43 career starts. Sophomore end E.J. Wilson is the only new starter among the front four and he saw plenty of playing time last year, especially in third down situations.

According to the coaches, Balmer had the most productive spring of any Carolina player and he should be an all-conference candidate in 2007. Guy had to miss the spring workouts while recovering from an ACL knee injury suffered in the final game of the 2007 season against Duke, but is expected to be at full strength this fall.

The Tar Heels have a tremendous amount of depth at tackle. Sophomores Cam Thomas and Tavares Brown saw action last season as part of the rotation and newcomers Aleric Mullins, Tydreke Powell and Austin should contend for playing time. Mullins and Powell were the top rated defensive tackles in North Carolina in 2006 and 2007, respectively. At end, Greg Elleby, Darrius Massenburg, Darius Powell all redshirted last season and have bright futures after productive springs under defensive line coach John Blake.

On the offensive line, look for junior Garrett Reynolds to take a step forward in his progression as a blocking force. At 6-7, 295 pounds, Davis believes Reynolds has the size and athleticism to become a dominant lineman. Senior Scott Lenahan and junior Ben Lemming are expected to battle this fall for the starting center position. Lenahan started 11 of 12 games a year ago and the versatile Lemming saw spot duty at center, guard and tackle. Junior Calvin Darity is a returning starter at one guard position and junior Bryon Bishop and sophomore Aaron Stahl will compete for the other. Protecting the quarterback's blind side at left tackle will either be Kyle Jolly or Andre Barbour. Jolly had a great spring, but Barbour has slightly more experience. Injuries at tight end last season forced the Tar Heels to use Barbour at the position for the final five games of the season. In his first career game as a tight end, Barbour caught a touchdown pass against Wake Forest.



Junior offensive tackle Garrett Reynolds anchors a line that should be the strength of the offense.

Carolina does not have nearly the same amount of depth and experience anywhere else on the field, especially at the skill positions. What they do have is several outstanding young players who need to continue to improve.

Sophomore Hakeem Nicks headlines UNC's wide receivers and is the ACC's leading returning wide receiver. He set UNC freshman records last season with 39 receptions for 660 yards, and had an exceptional game at Notre Dame, catching six passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns. He was named a freshman All-America by The Sporting News and Rivals.com and enters this year as Carolina's top big-play threat.

Junior Brandon Tate, an accomplished return man, had his best spring at Carolina and is expected to assume more of a role as a receiver in 2007. He enters the year with just five receptions. Most of Tate's notoriety has come as a kick returner. He became just the ninth player in NCAA history to return a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown in the same game in Carolina's win at Duke. He has already set several Carolina kick return records, including most touchdowns by kick return with four.

Junior Brooks Foster was the team leader in receptions last year until the final game of the season. He still finished second with 38 catches for 486 yards and two touchdowns. A steady player with good hands, Foster had at least one reception in every game and a career-high 11 vs. Rutgers.

After considering graduating early, senior Joe Dailey stayed for his final season and made an easy transition from quarterback to receiver in the spring. He had a great spring and is expected to contend for a starting role. Dailey is playing for his fourth head coach in five seasons after transferring from Nebraska in 2005.

With Dailey's move to wideout, Carolina is considerably thin at quarterback with just one returning player with any game experience. Sophomore Cameron Sexton played in seven games last year and started five. He completed 57 of 136 attempts (.419) for 840 yards and had four touchdown passes. Sexton and redshirt freshman T.J. Yates enter the year as co-starters after Yates had an impressive spring, capped off by a three-touchdown performance in the spring game. Redshirt freshman B.J. Phillips is also in the mix, along with highly touted freshman Mike Paulus.

The Tar Heels face nearly the same challenge at running back as they do at quarterback after the graduation of Ronnie McGill and dismissal of Barrington Edwards. A total of only eight tailback carries return from 2006, including seven by walk-on Justin Warren and one from sophomore Richie Rich. Coming out of spring practice, the position is still unsettled. Rich, Johnny White, Anthony-Parker Boyd and Anthony Elzy all saw repetitions as the starter, but no one emerged as the clear cut winner. Entering the fall, Rich and Elzy are listed as co-starters. Incoming freshman Ryan Houston could also grab the spot. At fullback, sophomore Bobby Rome returns as the starter.

At tight end, Carolina welcomes back sophomore Richard Quinn, who missed all of last season with a shoulder injury sustained just a week prior to the season opener. Quinn has good ball skills and continues to improve as blocker. He will compete with sophomore Ryan Taylor and freshmen Zach Pianalto and Vince Jacobs for playing time. Taylor and Pianalto also play the H-back spot in offensive coordinator John Shoop's scheme.

Defensively, Carolina has slightly more experience at linebacker and defensive back. Senior Durell Mapp, the Tar Heels' leading tackler in 2006, returns for his third year as the starter at outside linebacker. Mapp come to UNC as a walk-on and has earned a scholarship with his solid play.

Juniors Chase Rice and Mark Paschal have started games at linebacker during their careers, and both enter the season competing for starting positions. That competition will come from sophomore Wesley Flagg and a pair of true freshmen in Bruce Carter and Quan Sturdivant. Flagg was one of four true freshmen to see playing time in 2006, mostly on special teams. He had a terrific spring and enters the fall as the starter at middle linebacker. Flagg has put on 25 pounds of muscle since he enrolled at UNC. Carter and Sturdivant both enrolled in January in time to go through spring practice. Both players impressed the coaching staff and should see playing time this fall. Carter enters the fall as the co-starter with Rice at outside linebacker.

In the defensive backfield, junior Trimane Goddard returns from a broken foot that sidelined him for the entire 2006 season. Goddard was one of the Tar Heels' top playmakers in 2005, starting six games and leading the team in interceptions. Behind Goddard is converted wide receiver Deunta Williams, who made the move in the spring.

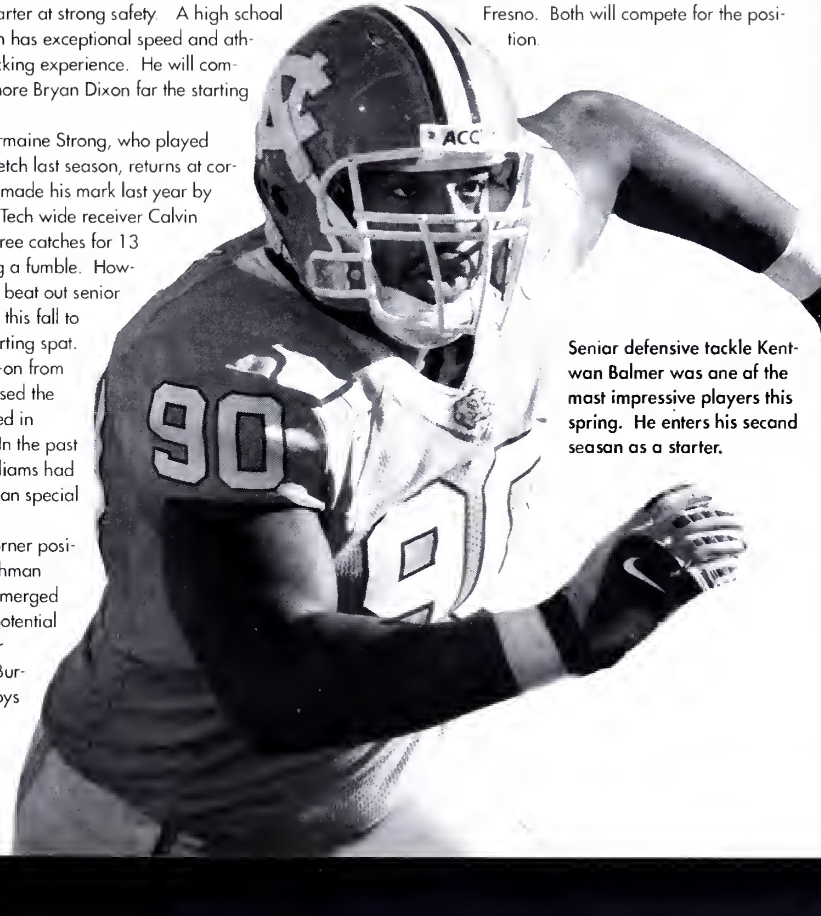
Redshirt freshman Shaun Draughn came out of spring practice as the starter at strong safety. A high school tailback, Draughn has exceptional speed and athleticism, but is lacking experience. He will compete with sophomore Bryan Dixon for the starting spot this fall.

Sophomore Jermaine Strong, who played well down the stretch last season, returns at cornerback. Strong made his mark last year by holding Georgia Tech wide receiver Calvin Johnson to just three catches for 13 yards and forcing a fumble. However, Strong must beat out senior Kendric Williams this fall to hold on to his starting spot. Williams, a walk-on from Charlotte, impressed the staff with his speed in spring practice. In the past two seasons, Williams had played primarily on special teams.

At the other corner position, redshirt freshman Kendric Burney emerged this spring as a potential starter with junior Cooter Arnold. Burney, who also plays on the Tar Heel baseball team as a center fielder and pitcher, is one of the fastest players on the team. Arnold began his career as a tailback, starting the first game of his career in 2005. He switched to the defensive side of the ball as a safety in 2006 and moved to cornerback this spring.

On special teams, Carolina has one of the most accurate place-kickers in the country in Connor Barth. Barth made all 10 attempts last season and was the only perfect kicker in the country last year with at least three attempts. Barth needs 18 field goals to become UNC's all-time leader and just nine to move into second place.

The punting position is unsettled entering the fall. Walk-on senior John Choate has played in just two games and has just six career punts. In March, Carolina signed punter Terrence Brown from Fresno City College. Brown averaged 39 yards per punt in two seasons at Fresno. Both will compete for the position.



Senior defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer was one of the most impressive players this spring. He enters his second season as a starter.

NOTING THE TAR HEELS

- Butch Davis was named Carolina's 33rd all-time head coach on November 13, 2006.

- Davis coached or recruited 28 first-round NFL draft picks while at the University of Miami as an assistant or head coach.

- Carolina plays six road games this year for the first time since the 2003 season. The first of those road games is Sept. 8 at East Carolina. It is just the Tar Heels' second visit to Greenville and first since a 28-17 victory in 2003. Overall, Carolina leads the series, 8-1-1.

- On Oct. 6 Carolina welcomes Miami to Chapel Hill for the first time since the Tar Heels' dramatic 31-28 victory over the fourth-ranked Hurricanes in 2004. Davis was head coach for six seasons at Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances.

- South Carolina visits Chapel Hill for the first time since 1991. North Carolina leads the series with the Gamecocks, 34-16-4. The Tar Heels will travel to Columbia in 2010.

- Davis slightly altered Carolina's uniform for the 2007 season, adding a blue stripe on the white pants that starts wide at the waistband and narrows to a point just above the knee. More changes are scheduled for 2008.

- North Carolina will face eight teams that earned bowl bids last season – East Carolina, South Florida, Virginia Tech, Miami, South Carolina, Wake Forest, Maryland and Georgia Tech.

- Assistant coaches Kenny Browning and Tommy Thigpen were retained by Butch Davis for the 2007 season. Browning is working for his fourth Carolina head coach since taking the job in 1995. He has coached defensive tackles, tight ends and now running backs in Chapel Hill. Thigpen, a former Tar Heel letterwinner, is in his third season as linebackers coach.

- Kick returner Brandan Tate finished second in the country in 2006 with 902 kickoff return yards. He became one of just nine players in NCAA history to return a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown in the same game in the win over Duke. Interestingly, of the nine players in NCAA history to accomplish the feat, three of them are Tar Heels (Charlie Justice in 1946, Eric Blount in 1991 and Tate in 2006).

- Tate already ranks in the ACC top 20 in career kickoff return yardage with 1,444 yards. The all-time leaders are both Tar Heels - Eric Blount (2,313) and Marcus Wall (2,120).

- Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks averaged 16.9 yards per catch and led all ACC freshmen in receptions per game (3.6) and yardage (60.0) in 2006.

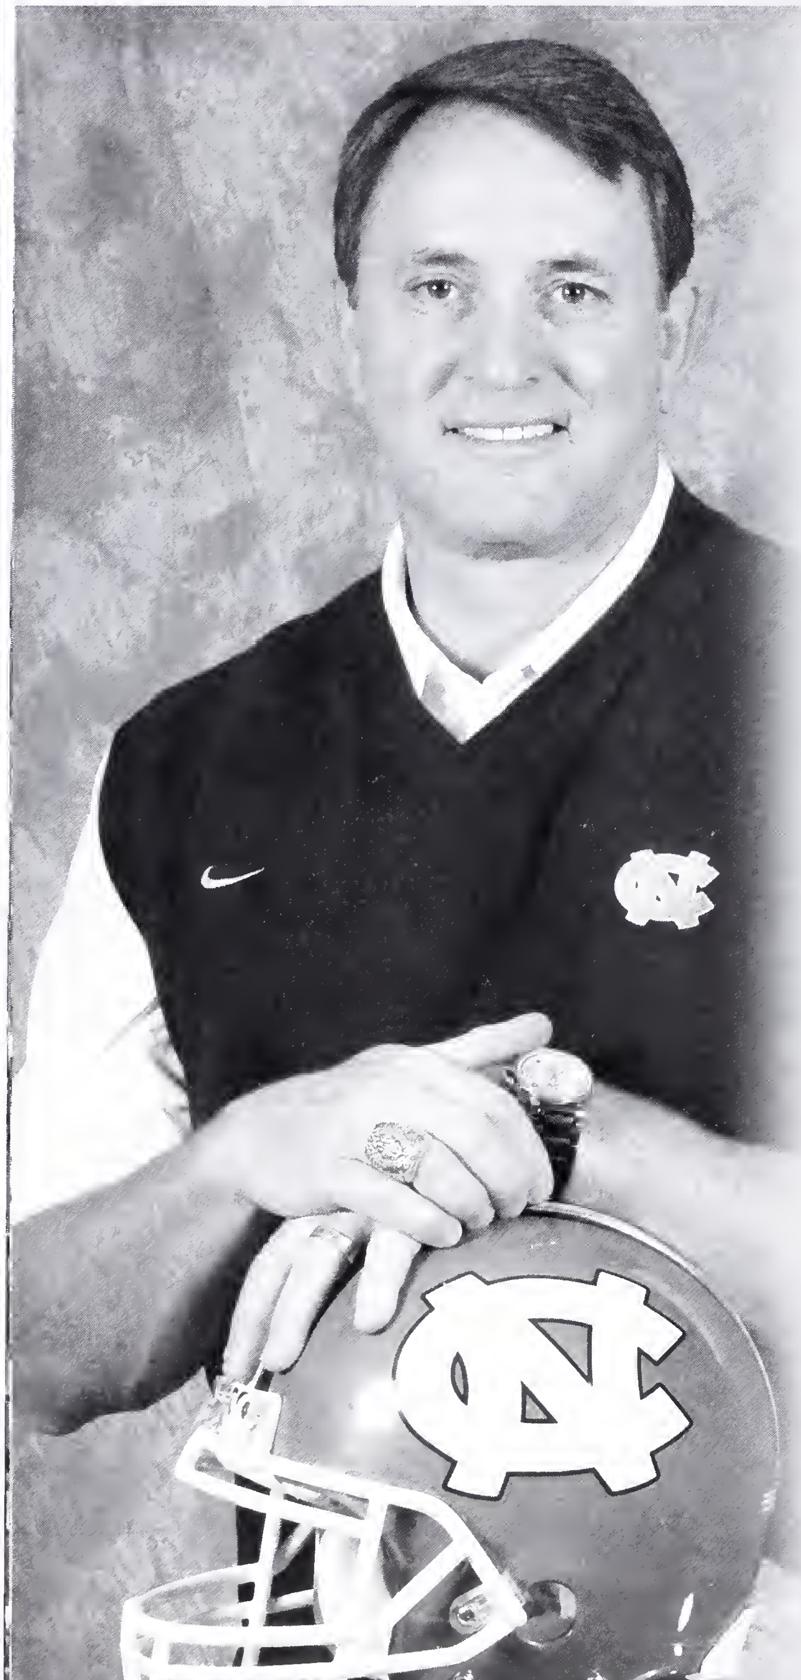
coaching excellence

directing the tar heels



• North Carolina's coaching staff has experience on all levels, including high school, college and the NFL. Seven of the nine coaches have coached in the NFL, six have been a coordinator in either college or the NFL, and five have head coaching experience.

• BUTCH DAVIS coached or recruited 28 first-round draft picks whil head coach at the University of Miami. He is the 15th winningest active college coach in the nation.

• Widely considered the top recruiter in the country, Associate Head Coach JOHN BLAKE mentored one of the top defensive lines in the country last year at Nebraska and won a Super Bowl in Dallas in 1995.

• Former North Carolina high school coach of the year KEN BROWING is entering his 14th season with the Tar Heels. He has coached on both sides of the ball and helped develop several outstanding NFL players.

• JEFF CONNORS is a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach, an honor bestowed on him by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association. It is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach.

•Tight ends coach STEVE HAGEN has been an assistant in the NFL, a coordinator in college and a head coach on the collegiate level. H previously worked with Butch Davis with the Cleveland Browns.

• JOHN LOVETT, UNC's special teams coordinator and defensive assistant, comes to Carolina with 18 years of experience as a defensiv coordinator.

• Defensive coordinator CHUCK PAGANO was a member of Butch Davis's previous staffs in Miami and Cleveland and came to Carolin from the Oakland Raiders. In 2006, the Raiders led the National Football League in pass defense and ranked third in total defense.

• In four years at Northern Illinois, offensive line coach SAM PITTMAN produced nine all-conference linemen, including seven first-team selections, and NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yar rushing mark all four years.

• Offensive coordinator JOHN SHOOP comes to Carolina with 12 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach, including two stints as a coordinator in the professional ranks.

• A former All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina, TOMMY THIGPEN enters his third season as the Tar Heels' linebackers coach. An exceptional recruiter, Thigpen was recently named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2007 by Rivals.com.

• A 22-year coaching veteran, wide receivers coach CHARLIE WILLIAMS previously coached with Butch Davis at Miami and spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers where he tutored Pro Bowl wideout Keyshawn Johnson.

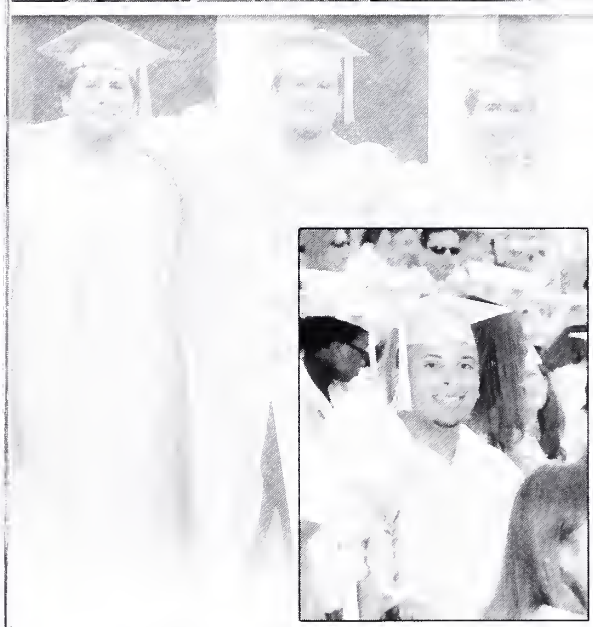
academic excellence

the foundation for a lifetime of succes

Advancing toward graduation, Building Character, Developing Leadership



The Academic Support Program assists student-athletes in exploring their interests and abilities, enjoying a broad educational experience, and reaching or exceeding their academic goals. "Our young people are students first and athletes second and that will always be the case at the University," says UNC Director of Athletics Dick Baddour. "That is a credit to our coaches, administrators and support staff, but most of all, our student-athletes. Their accomplishments in the classroom are very impressive."

The Academic Support Program is housed primarily in the Pope Academic Support Center, which is equipped with study facilities, tutorial rooms, a computer lab, a 128-seat auditorium, counselors' offices, and state-of-the-art video and computer equipment. At the center, students mee with staff to discuss course selection, major and career exploration, academic progress and academic eligibility.

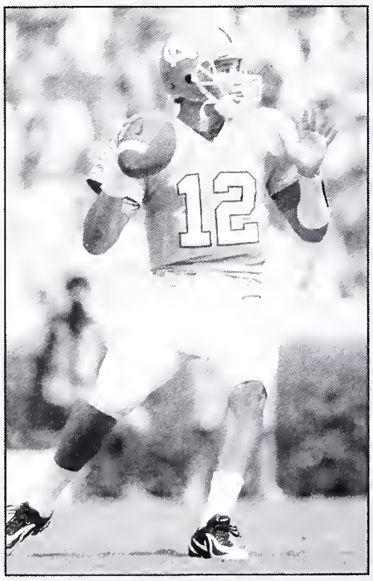
Dr. Jack Evans

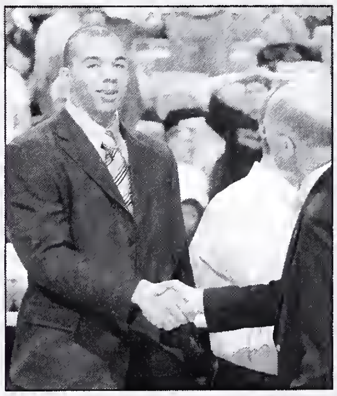
Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Jack Evans is in his 11th year as UNC's faculty athletics representative to the Atlantic Coast Conference and the NCAA.

A former dean of the Kenan-Flagler Business School, he is the Phillip Hettleman Professor of operations, technology and innovation management. He currently serves as Executive Director of Carolina North.

Evans is a graduate of Cornell University, where he earned his undergraduate, master's and doctorate degrees.





Joe Dailey was named to the 2006 All-ACC Academic Team and selected as the squad's recipient of the Athletic Director's Scholar Athlete Award. Above, he is congratulated by Chancellor James Moeser.

academic excellence

he foundation for a lifetime of success

In each of the last four years, UNC has been honored by the American otball Coaches Association for graduating at least 70 percent of its football udent-athletes. Carolina was one of 32 schools to receive the honor for 2007.

cademic Support Program Staff

Robert Mercer

Director of the Academic Support Program

Robert Mercer has directed the Academic Support Program since 2002 and has been part of the department since 1996. Mercer has worked for UNC since 1994, when he became an area director in the school's housing office.

A 1989 graduate of Winthrop with a degree in political science and social sciences, Mercer earned a master's degree in industrial education and human resource development from Clemson in 1991.

Cynthia Reynolds

Associate Director of the Academic Support Program

Cynthia R. Reynolds serves as the Associate Director of the Academic Support Program and is the academic coordinator for the Tar Heel football team. Reynolds came to Carolina in 2002 after working as the Assistant Athletic Drector for Student Services at Tulane following stints at Cornell, Michigan and SUNY-Buffalo.

Reynolds graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in psychology and sociology and earned a master's degree in college counseling and student personnel administration from SUNY-Buffalo.

Beth Bridger

Learning Specialist

Beth Bridger joined the UNC Academic Support Program staff in the summer of 2006 and is the learning specialist for the football team. Prior to coming to UNC, she served as an academic advisor at James Madison.

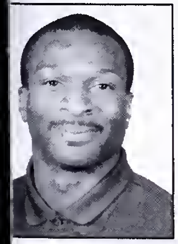
Bridger graduated from East Carolina in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in special education and earned a master's in sport administration from Louisville in 2005. At ECU, she was a four-year letterwinner for the softball team.

Mary Willingham

Learning Specialist

Mary Willingham has been a part of the Academic Support Program since 2003. In addition to duties with other teams, she works with the football team.

Before coming to UNC, Willingham taught at Chapel Hill High School, East Chapel Hill High School and The Hill Center. She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Loyola and a master's in liberal studies from UNC Greensboro.



Octavus Barnes

Academic Counselor

Octavus Barnes joined the UNC Academic Support Program in 2005. He serves as an academic counselor, working primarily with the football team.

Barnes graduated from UNC in 1997 with a double major in sociology and African-American studies. He lettered four years for the Tar Heel football team and still holds several school records, including career receiving touchdowns. He played two years in the NFL and participated in Super Bowl XXXIII with Atlanta.

additional academic counselor for football will join the staff this fall. The players o work with tutors in a variety of subjects.

developing world-class leaders

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world class leaders in athletics, academics and life. The Academy consists of three programs:

CREED Program

Leadership training begins in the freshman year. All leadership begins with personal leadership, therefore freshmen are taught skills to effectively lead themselves. Training consists of monthly meetings featuring keynote speakers and small group discussion. Upperclass student-athletes serve as peer mentors and discussion leaders. Special focus is on responsibility, accountability, making good choices, ethics and character building.

Rising Stars Program

Designed for a select group of "high potential" sophomores and juniors, the program provides future leaders with insights, strategies and skills necessary to become effective leaders. The program includes monthly meetings, interactive exercises and action learning experiences.

Veteran Leaders Program

This program is designed for team captains and veteran student-athletes. It provides advanced leadership training and support, teaches the critical skills and insights necessary to be effective vocal leaders and provides a strong peer network. Student-athletes meet regularly to learn and reinforce leadership principles and share successes, frustrations and lessons.

north carolina

the first state universit

Through its teaching, research and engagement, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill serves as an educational and economic beacon for the people of North Carolina and beyond.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century.

The American Society of Landscape Architects selected Carolina as one of the most beautifully landscaped spots in the country. That listing is among the praise affirming the charm of mighty oaks, majestic quadrangles, brick sidewalks and other landscaping synonymous with the campus.

Today, the campus is undergoing an unprecedented physical transformation. The North Carolina Higher Education Bond Referendum has meant more than $515 million for renovations and new buildings. The university is investing funds from non-state sources, including private gifts and overhead receipts from faculty research grants, for other buildings essential to excellence. The resulting $1.8 billion capital campaign is among the largest underway at any major American university.

Recently completed buildings include:

- FedEx Global Education Building, which brings several key international activities under one roof and advances a major academic priority. The building is creating a vibrant hub of international studies, academic services, research, public service and cultural exchange.
- Memorial Hall reopened in 2005 after a three-year, $18 million renovatio designed to make the famed venue a focal point for the performing arts across the region. Memorial Hall hosts the Carolina Performing Arts Series. Fall 2007 performers will include the legendary Aretha Franklin and jazz v calist Dianne Reeves.
- The Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History opened in 2004, becoming one of the few such facilities nationwide combining cultur programs, research, community service, teaching and learning under one roof. Funded by private donations, the Stone Center contains classrooms, a 10,000-volume library, seminar rooms, an art gallery, dance studio and spaces for performances, lectures, meetings and offices.

The ACC

Now in its 55th year of competition, the Atlantic Coast Conference has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 49 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively.

In 2006, eight ACC players earned first team All-America recognition, while nine others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 523 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 72 first team academic All-Americans.

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,124 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 210 first round selections.

The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 143-123-5 (.537) in postseason play. Following its 4-4 bowl mark in 2006, the ACC is the only conference to post a .500-or-better record in postseason play in each of the past six seasons. Since 2001, the ACC is 25-16 in postseason play and has the best bowl winning percentage (.609) among all BCS conferences.

For the first time in ACC history, league schools surpassed the 4.4 million mark in total attendance in 2006.

Butch Davis, former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, is the 33rd head coach at the University of North Carolina and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953. He was named the Tar Heels' head coach on November 13, 2006, and formally introduced at a press conference on November 27.

Since taking over the reins in Chapel Hill, Davis has been relentless in his approach to turning around the program. He took his time hiring a staff, often saying he wanted to "get it right, no matter how long it took." The staff includes several assistants with whom he has worked with in the past and seven of the nine have previously either been head coaches, college coordinators or NFL assistants. Despite having just over five weeks to recruit, Davis and his staff flourished, signing a consensus top 20 class, led by the nation's top defensive player Marvin Austin and North Carolina high school All-Americas Greg Little, Ryan Houston and Dwight Jones. Following one of the most successful signing days in Carolina history, Davis took part in the Rams Club speaking tour, squeezed in 15 days of spring football practice – including a spring game that drew a record crowd – and oversaw renovations to the Tar Heel locker room and weight room. Increases in season ticket sales and a proposed expansion to Kenan Stadium are two more pieces of evidence that Davis has the Tar Heel faithful excited for the future.

Davis brings instant credibility to the football program. He has coached in 11 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. He enters the season ranked among the top 15 winningest active coaches in Division I. An excellent motivator and technician, Davis recruited or coached a number of players at Miami who were selected in the NFL Draft, including an amazing 28 first-round picks (see chart on page 82).

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis served as an analyst on the NFL Network for two seasons. There he was able to watch and study the latest college football offensive and defensive schemes. Yearning to return to the college coaching ranks, Davis surveyed the college football landscape, and when the Carolina job came open, he was immediately interested.

"When I looked at everything North Carolina had to offer in terms of a great campus setting, access to players and the proper balance between athletics and academics, I knew this would be a good fit for me and my family," said Davis.

Davis was head coach for six seasons at the University of Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000 when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the '95 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis's arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis's 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis.

In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics and his Hurricanes earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his six seasons.

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's Davis hasn't slowed down since taking the North Carolina job. He signed a consensus top 20 recruiting class in February, made numerous speaking engagements throughout the state on the Rams Club tour and conducted the Tar Heels' 15 spring practices.

final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters -- end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americas Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988, and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for Coach Frank Broyles. A knee injury curtailed his college career, and he became a student assistant coach for the Razorbacks. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

He and his wife, Tammy, have a teenage son, Drew. Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Okla.

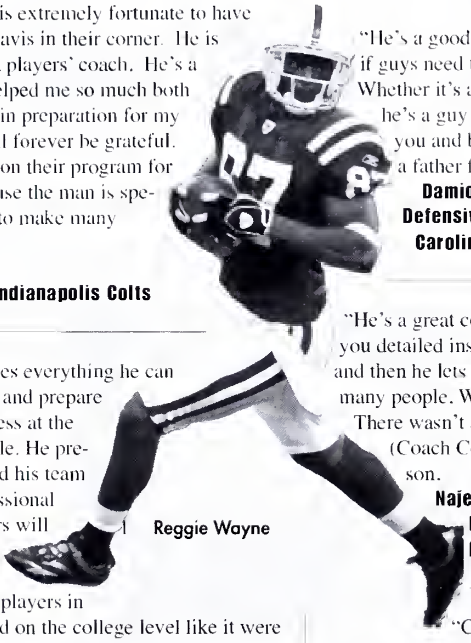
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CAROL BASKET
Butch Davis was introduced to a standing ovation at Carolina's men's basketball victory over Kentucky on Dec. 1.

What Others Are Saying About Butch Davis:

"North Carolina is extremely fortunate to have a man like Coach Davis in their corner. He is above and beyond a players' coach. He's a family coach. He helped me so much both on and off the field in preparation for my NFL days, and I will forever be grateful. I'd keep an eye out on their program for years to come because the man is special and he's going to make many happy."

Reggie Wayne,
Wide Receiver, Indianapolis Colts



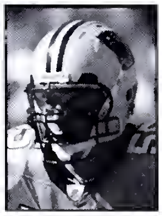
Reggie Wayne

"Coach Davis does everything he can to run his operation and prepare his players for success at the highest level possible. He prepares his players and his team as if it were a professional program. His players will be well-equipped for the NFL level because he puts his players in a position to succeed on the college level like it were a pro team. He runs a program like no other, when guys come in as 19-year olds or whatever the case may be, he molds them into men as players and as people. He gets his players focused on the important things within the team and school and has the respect of his players for them to act the right way."

Santana Moss,
Wide Receiver, Washington Redskins

"Coach Davis is really good with players. I think he will build a really nice program there."

Edgerrin James,
Running Back, Arizona Cardinals



"He's definitely a coach that's not going to be easy on you. He's a guy that's going to come in and weed out the tough players from the weak players. ... He's a great motivator and a great coach to play under."

Dan Morgan,
Linebacker, Carolina Panthers

"Coach Davis came in and changed the entire UM program around. He brought us from a probation team to a championship team. I credit him with that completely. He instilled discipline, was a great coach and defensive mind. He knows how to get players to do their jobs. He also makes sure players are doing what they need to do academically as well. When it comes time to play, his players will do anything to make plays for him."

Mike Rumph,
Defensive Back, Washington Redskins

"He's a good guy. His office door is always open if guys need to go up there to talk to him. Whether it's about football or a personal issue, he's a guy that is going to open his door to you and be honest with you. He's more like a father figure."

Damione Lewis,
Defensive Tackle
Carolina Panthers

"He's a great coach. He lets you play. He gives you detailed instructions on what he wants done and then he lets you play. That's how we beat so many people. We were out there playing football. There wasn't any pressure. He reminds me of (Coach Cowher) a little bit. He's a good person."

Najeh Davenport,
Running Back
Pittsburgh Steelers

"Coach Davis is an excellent coach. I think he is going to do a tremendous job turning that program around, with him being a great recruiter. The way he turned the program around at UM shows he can do it. He recruited good guys there so I think he will probably do the same thing at North Carolina. He recruited me and was able to bring in a lot of good players down there."

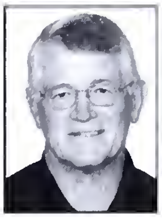
Vernon Carey,
Offensive Lineman, Miami Dolphins

"Butch has been successful at every level of coaching. He came from good stock. His dad was a Hall of Fame high school coach in Oklahoma. Butch is more than a coach of just X's and O's. He will build relationships for the university and the athletic program. He will be not only a winning football coach, but also a great team player for everyone at the University of North Carolina."

Frank Broyles,
Arkansas Athletic Director,
Davis' college coach at Arkansas

"Butch Davis worked for me for many years and did a great job. He is an outstanding coach and recruiter, and North Carolina is extremely fortunate to obtain him. I'm sure he'll do a great job."

Jimmy Johnson,
Fox Sports NFL Analyst,
Former Miami (Fla.) & NFL Head Coach



"I think Butch Davis is an outstanding choice for the University of North Carolina. I first got to know him by coaching against him when he was at the Dallas Cowboys. He coached the defensive line, and I admired the way that line always played. I followed his career and stayed in touch with him when he went to Miami and completely turned that program around. When I was in Atlanta and we were in the Super Bowl, we used his practice facility at Miami and I got to spend more time with him. I got to see first-hand how great his relationships are with his players. He's a personable and impressive person. I like him not only as a coach, but as a person and I think it's a great choice."

Dan Reeves,
Former NFL Head Coach

"We is a great friend of the network. He came in and impressed everybody with how much he cared about doing things the right way. He was on time, he worked hard and he worked longer than he needed to. There wasn't a person at the network that didn't respect Butch Davis and I'm at the top of that list. I worked side-by-side with him every week for the last year and a half. Integrity, honesty, sense of humor, likability - you name it, he's off the charts. He's one of my favorite people in the world."

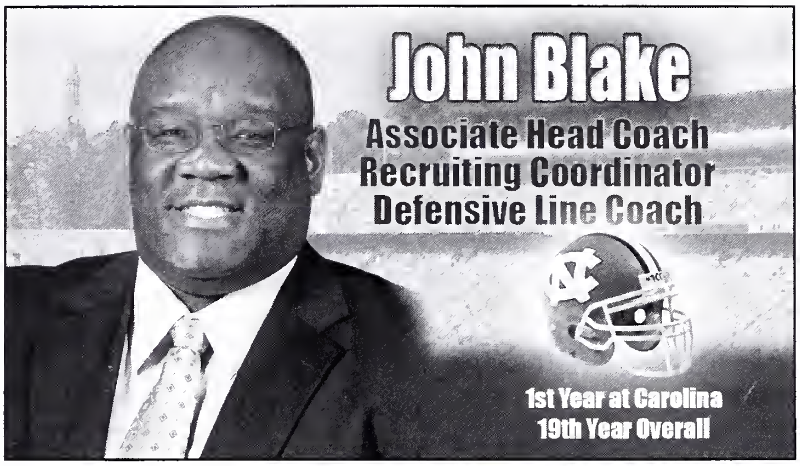
Paul Burmeister,
NFL Network Studio Host,
Former Iowa Quarterback

"One of the things you'll find out about Butch is how much he cares about people. You could see that in the fifth and sixth grade and you could see that all through college. He's a person who once he gets to know you, will always remember you and stay in touch with you. His concerns are not about what you do on the football field, his concerns are what you do as a young man, about being respectful to your family, about being respectful to the community and being thoughtful to your teammates and fellow students. He wants to prepare young men who will go on and be successful beyond the football field because football is only temporary."

John Tyson,
Chairman of Tyson Foods,
Friend of Davis since the second grade

"Butch Davis is a man of integrity, who is a superb coach with great people skills. He is an excellent role model with a strong commitment to his profession and calling, which enables him to recruit quality players who win on the playing field and prepares them for a life after football. ... I believe he is an excellent choice for the job."

Zig Ziglar,
Chairman of Ziglar.com, Longtime friend of Davis



John Blake enters his first season on the North Carolina staff. Blake, who spent the last three seasons at Nebraska, serves as the Tar Heels' associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach.

Head coach Butch Davis and Blake previously worked together as members of Jimmy Johnson's staff with the Dallas Cowboys. Blake joined the Dallas staff as defensive line coach after Davis was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1993. That year, Dallas ranked eighth in the league in total defense and beat Buffalo, 30-13, in Super Bowl XXVII. After Davis left to become the head coach at Miami in 1995, Blake remained in Dallas and won another Super Bowl title under head coach Barry Switzer.

Many observers consider Blake to be the nation's top recruiter. In fact, the Wall Street Journal named Blake one of the nation's top three recruiters in a 2007 article and American Football Coaches Quarterly selected him as the nation's top recruiter. Blake was instrumental in Carolina's consensus top 20 recruiting class in February, which included the nation's No. 1 defensive player Marvin Austin, a Blake recruit. Nebraska's 2005 class was considered by most recruiting analysts to be one of the top five in the country. His role in helping bring some of the country's most talented players to Lincoln led to Blake's inclusion as a finalist for National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com. He also was responsible for recruiting the majority of starters on Oklahoma's 2000 national championship team.

Blake was hired as Nebraska's defensive line coach in 2004, and the Huskers ranked second in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in rushing defense that season. Nebraska allowed just 104.0 yards rushing per game, including a league-low 2.9 yards per attempt. In 2005, Nebraska's defense ranked in the top 30 nationally in all four major defensive categories, including being the top-ranked unit in the country for sacks and tackles for loss. In 2006, Nebraska was 9-4 during the regular season and accepted an invitation to play Auburn in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 2007. The Huskers defensive line was ranked the top defensive line unit in the country by CollegeFootballNews.com. Blake also coached in the Huskers' 32-28 win over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Blake served one season as Mississippi State's defensive line coach in 2003. He was the director of a professional developmental camp called "A Chance To Advance Football Camp" for four years before joining MSU. Among his clients were Miami Dolphins defensive end Jason Taylor, New Orleans Saints defense end Darren Howard and Indianapolis Colts defensive end Dwight Freeney.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Blake played for Switzer at Oklahoma from 1979-82 where he earned All-Big Eight honors at nose guard. He later returned to his alma mater to serve as head coach of the Sooners from 1996-98.

At Oklahoma, Blake began as a student assistant working with the defensive line in 1985 and earned a national championship ring that season. The Sooners lost just two games during his first tenure on the staff.

Blake's first full-time assistant position was at Tulsa from 1987-88, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers. He returned to his alma mater in 1989 as the Sooners' defensive line coach, and then served as Gary Gibbs' linebackers coach from 1990 to 1992.

After Johnson hired Blake in Dallas, five players made the Pro Bowl during his three seasons. Blake's defensive line was considered one of the best in the NFL during his tenure. Among others, Blake tutored pro bowlers Charles Haley, Russell Maryland, Leon Lett, Chad Henning, Tony Talbert and Jim Jeffcoat.

Blake earned his bachelor's degree in public relations and recreation from Oklahoma in 1986. He and his wife, Freda, have one son, Jourdan.

The longest tenured assistant coach at North Carolina, Ken Browning will coach running backs in 2006. It is his second stint on offense at UNC. He coached tight ends from 2001-04 and defensive tackles from 1994-2000 and 2005-06. Butch Davis is the fourth head coach Browning has worked under at North Carolina. Browning also oversees Carolina's camps and clinics.

One of the state's most decorated high school coaches, Browning joined the Tar Heel staff in 1994 as the defensive tackles coach and has coached in some of the most memorable Carolina football games in his 13 years on the staff. He has been a part of seven bowl games at UNC and was on the staff in 1996-97 when UNC had a combined record of 21-3 and finished ranked in the top 10 both seasons.

In four seasons as tight ends coach, Browning developed several standout players, including Zach Hilton, Bobby Blizzard and Jon Hamlett. Under Browning's tutelage, Hilton blossomed into a solid NFL prospect and played three seasons in the NFL. Blizzard earned honorable-mention All-ACC acclaim in 2002.

Browning has developed a number of outstanding defensive players also, including first-round NFL draft picks Vonnie Holliday, Marcus Jones and Ryan Sims and second-round picks Rick Terry and Russell Davis. Sports Illustrated selected North Carolina's defensive tackles in its positional "Dream Team" in its 1998 preseason college football issue. Nearly every defensive tackle Browning coached at UNC has been drafted by or signed by an NFL franchise. That continued in 2005 when Chase Page was selected by the San Diego Chargers. In 2002, Sims, who played under Browning for three years, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round with the No. 6 pick.

Browning is no stranger to success on both sides of the ball. As a defensive assistant, the Tar Heels led the ACC in total defense from 1995-97 and finished No. 2 in the nation in yards allowed in 1996 and 1997. The Tar Heels were third in the country against the run in 1996 allowing 73.9 yards per game. In 1997, Carolina was fourth in the nation stopping the run as the opponents averaged 77.9 yards per contest. UNC held opponents to less than 50 yards rushing in six games and less than 100 yards in nine of 12 games.

Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000, Browning directed a UNC squad that set a school record with an ACC-best 53 sacks. Carolina finished 19th in the nation against the run, allowing just 103.5 yards per game, and was second in the league and 30th in the nation in total defense.

Browning was the head coach and athletic director at Northern High School for 18 years. He posted a 178-35 record and won the 1993 4-A state title and Shrine Bowl. Over his last three years, Northern built a 43-2 record and he was named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 1992 and 1993. He became only the third coach to win both the state title and Shrine Bowl in the same year.

Browning and his wife, Susan, have three sons – Chuck, John and Joe.

Jeff Connors
Assistant Athletic Director
Strength & Conditioning
7th Season at Carolina
27th Season Overall

Jeff Connors is in his seventh year as Carolina's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and his sixth as an assistant athletic director. While his primary focus is the football team's strength and conditioning, Connors oversees the department's entire strength and conditioning program and also works specifically with the women's basketball team.

In 2003, Connors was honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa). The Master Strength & Conditioning Coach certification is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach, representing professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise and longevity in the field.

Connors' conditioning program was one of the reasons for Carolina's late-season surge in 2004 as the Tar Heels won three of the last four regular-season contests and earned a berth in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Since Connors began working with the women's basketball team, the Tar Heels have won three ACC championships, made two Final Four appearances and one Elite Eight appearance.

Connors came to Carolina after spending 10 seasons as East Carolina's Director of Strength & Conditioning. Under Connors, the Pirates were one of the best fourth-quarter teams in the country. In 1996, the ECU defense did not allow a point in the fourth quarter until the seventh game of the season and in 1999, the Pirates outscored their opponents, 102-56, in the final period. In 2000, ECU had a 94-57 advantage in the fourth quarter.

Connors' was the head strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell prior to his experience at East Carolina.

Several of Connors' former assistants are now head strength and conditioning coaches at other universities, including: John Williams, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Baylor; Tom Hawley, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Cornell; Jay Butler, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Rutgers; Jennifer Jones, Head Coach of Strength & Conditioning for Women's Sports at Texas A&M; Sonny Sono, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Ohio; Toby Jacobi, Strength & Conditioning Coach at Kent State; Josh Bush, Head Strength Coach, Morgan State; Wes Herlacker, Head Strength & Conditioning Coach, Wofford.

Connors was the featured speaker at the 1995 National Strength and Conditioning Association Conference in Phoenix, the 1996 NSCA Conference in Atlanta and the 2003 NSCA Conference. In 1996, he was the Regional Director of the Year and was nominated for National Strength Coach of the Year in 1991.

Connors was a competitive powerlifter and has won four state titles in powerlifting and has been ranked as high as fourth nationally. He holds Level I certification in Olympic Weight Lifting by the U.S. Weight Lifting Federation.

A 1980 graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, Connors was a four-year starter at cornerback and was team captain as a senior. He led Salem in interceptions as a sophomore and junior.

After college, Connors served as a police officer in South Florida for two years. Prior to becoming a strength coach, Connors coached high school football and wrestling at The Benjamin School in North Palm Beach, Fla., and he coached linebackers at the Tennessee Military Institute in Sweetwater, Tenn.

Connors and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kaitlin, and a son, Beau.

Steve Hagen
Assistant Coach
Tight Ends
1st Season at Carolina
25th Season Overall

Steve Hagen enters his first season at North Carolina and will tutor the Tar Heels' tight ends.

Hagen, who spent four seasons as Butch Davis's tight ends (2001-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004) with the Cleveland Browns, comes to Carolina after spending one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fresno State. A native of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Hagen was Davis's first hire at UNC.

Hagen coached Kelly Holcomb and Jeff Garcia in Cleveland and helped the Browns reach the NFL playoffs in 2002. Prior to his work in the NFL, Hagen was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Cal from 1999-2000, and spent two seasons at San Jose State as quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator in 1997-98. He was the head coach at Wartburg College (Iowa) in 1996, guiding the team to a 7-3 record and a No. 8 ranking in Division III in total offense.

Hagen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UNLV from 1994-95. The Rebels broke 20 school offensive records in two seasons and beat Central Michigan, 52-24, in the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl. As the wide receivers coach at UNLV in 1990, he coached current NFL star Keenan McCardell.

From 1992-93, Hagen was the quarterbacks coach at Nevada. The Wolf Pack were among the nation's most productive offensive teams, leading the nation in total offense (569.1 ypg) and passing yards (397.5 ypg). Nevada played in the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl in 1992.

Hagen spent the 1991 season as the quarterbacks coach at Kent State. In 1990, he was a graduate assistant receivers coach under Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, where he worked with Raghib "Rocket" Ismail and the Fighting Irish defeated Colorado, 21-6, in the 1990 Orange Bowl. He also held coaching positions at Northern Arizona, Illinois and Kansas from 1984-88.

Hagen was a wide receiver at Cal Lutheran from 1979-83, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in business. He and his wife, Amy, have four children, Nash, Hanna, Wil and Soren.

John Lovett

Special Teams Coordinator
Defensive Assistant

1st Season at Carolina
32nd Season Overall

John Lovett enters his first season as North Carolina's special teams coordinator and defensive assistant. Lovett comes to Carolina with 18 years of experience as a defensive coordinator, including stops at Clemson, Auburn and Mississippi. Most recently, he was the defensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2005-06.

In addition to coordinating the defense at Bowling Green, Lovett coached linebackers in 2005 and defensive backs in 2006. In his first year at BGSU, Lovett's defense ranked 20th in the country in turnover margin.

The defensive coordinator at Clemson from 2002-04, Lovett helped develop one of the ACC's top defenses and defensive backs Justin Miller and Brian Mance earned All-America honors. In 2004, Clemson was 11th in the nation in pass defense efficiency (103.4) and 26th in total defense (327.3). In 2003, his defense allowed just 19.2 points per game as Clemson finished the year with nine wins and a top 25 national ranking.

Lovett was the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 1999-2001 and helped lead the Tigers to bowl games each of his last two years. In 2001, Auburn earned a berth in the Peach Bowl opposite North Carolina.

Lovett coached the secondary all four years he was at Ole Miss (1995-98), including the 1997 season when the Rebels had an 8-4 overall record, including a victory in the Motor City Bowl.

Prior to coming to Mississippi in 1995, Lovett worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Maine for two stints. He first went to Orono in 1985 and severed as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1985-88. He also served as defensive coordinator for the Black Bears in 1994. The 1987 team won the conference championship and qualified for the Division I-AA playoffs.

Lovett began his career in coaching at Saint Joseph's Region High School in Montvale, N.J., in 1976. He started his college career in 1978 at Union College in New York, where he worked until 1982. Lovett spent the 1983 season in the Ivy League at Brown, and then moved back to New York to work under Joe Walton as the New York Jets' defensive quality control coach in 1984. In 1989, he joined head coach Tim Murphy at the University of Cincinnati, where he remained until 1992. In 1993, he coached at UNLV as the secondary coach.

Lovett graduated from C.W. Post College in December of 1973. He came to the school as a walk-on, but quickly earned a scholarship and served as the team's co-captain as a senior in 1973. He played for Dom Amile, who is now the Director of Football Operations for the Indianapolis Colts. At the completion of his career, he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Denver and he earned his Master's Degree in 1975. The next year he entered the coaching profession.

Chuck Pagano

Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Backs

1st Season at Carolina
24th Season Overall

Chuck Pagano enters his first season as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Pagano, who was a member of head coach Butch Davis's previous staffs in Miami and Cleveland, comes to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons as the Oakland Raiders' defensive backs coach.

In 2006, the Raiders led the National Football League in pass defense, allowing just 150.8 yards per game, and ranked third in total defense, giving up 284.8 yards per contest. One of Pagano's pupils, Nnamdi Asomugha, finished third in the league with eight interceptions.

Pagano coached the secondary and was special teams coordinator under Davis at Miami from 1995-2000, where he recruited and coached four first-round NFL draft picks - cornerback Phillip Buchanan, cornerback Duane Starks, safety Ed Reed and cornerback Mike Rumph. During the 2000 season, his secondary was tabbed the nation's best by Football News. His defensive backs did not allow a passing touchdown over the last 27 quarters of the 1999 season. As the Hurricanes' special teams coordinator, Miami blocked 39 kicks in 59 games, including a single-season school record 12 blocks in 1996.

Pagano was Davis's secondary coach in Cleveland from 2001-04. In 2003, his unit helped the Browns tie a franchise record for the fewest passing touchdown allowed with 13. Under Pagano's tutelage in 2001, the secondary accounted for 28 of the Browns' NFL-leading 33 interceptions, which also set a new team mark. As a rookie in 2001, Cleveland cornerback Anthony Henry led the league with 10 interceptions.

A native of Boulder, Colo., Pagano was a four-year letterwinner and two-year starter at the University of Wyoming. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at USC from 1984-85 before serving in the same capacity at Miami in 1986. He was outside linebackers coach at Boise State from 1987-88, then coached defensive backs at East Carolina (1989) and UNLV (1990). In 1991, Pagano was defensive coordinator for UNLV. He returned to ECU to coach defensive backs and outside linebackers from 1992-94.

Pagano and his wife, Tina, have three children, Tara, Taylor and Tori.

Sam Pittman
Assistant Coach
Offensive Line
1st Season at Carolina
23rd Season Overall

Sam Pittman enters his first season as North Carolina's offensive line coach. Pittman comes to Carolina after serving four seasons as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach (2003-06) and three years as its assistant head coach (2004-06). In 2006, the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the nation's leading rusher, Garrett Wolfe, to run for more than 1,900 yards.

In four years at NIU, Pittman produced nine All-Mid-American Conference linemen, including seven first-team selections. NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yard rushing mark all four years.

Despite three new starters on the offensive line and two freshmen among its top six players in 2006, Northern Illinois finished 17th in the country in rushing, averaging more than 180 yards per game. Wolfe finished his career as NIU's all-time leading rusher and is the 11th-leading rusher in NCAA history. The Huskies' offensive line played particularly well in the 2006 season opener at No. 1 Ohio State as NIU gained 171 yards on the ground.

In 2005, the Huskies were 16th nationally in rushing, averaging 206.7 yards. That season, Northern Illinois rushed for 211 yards at Michigan and 256 at Northwestern. In 2004, NIU was 9-3, won the Silicon Valley Bowl and finished 11th in the nation in rushing (238.2 ypg).

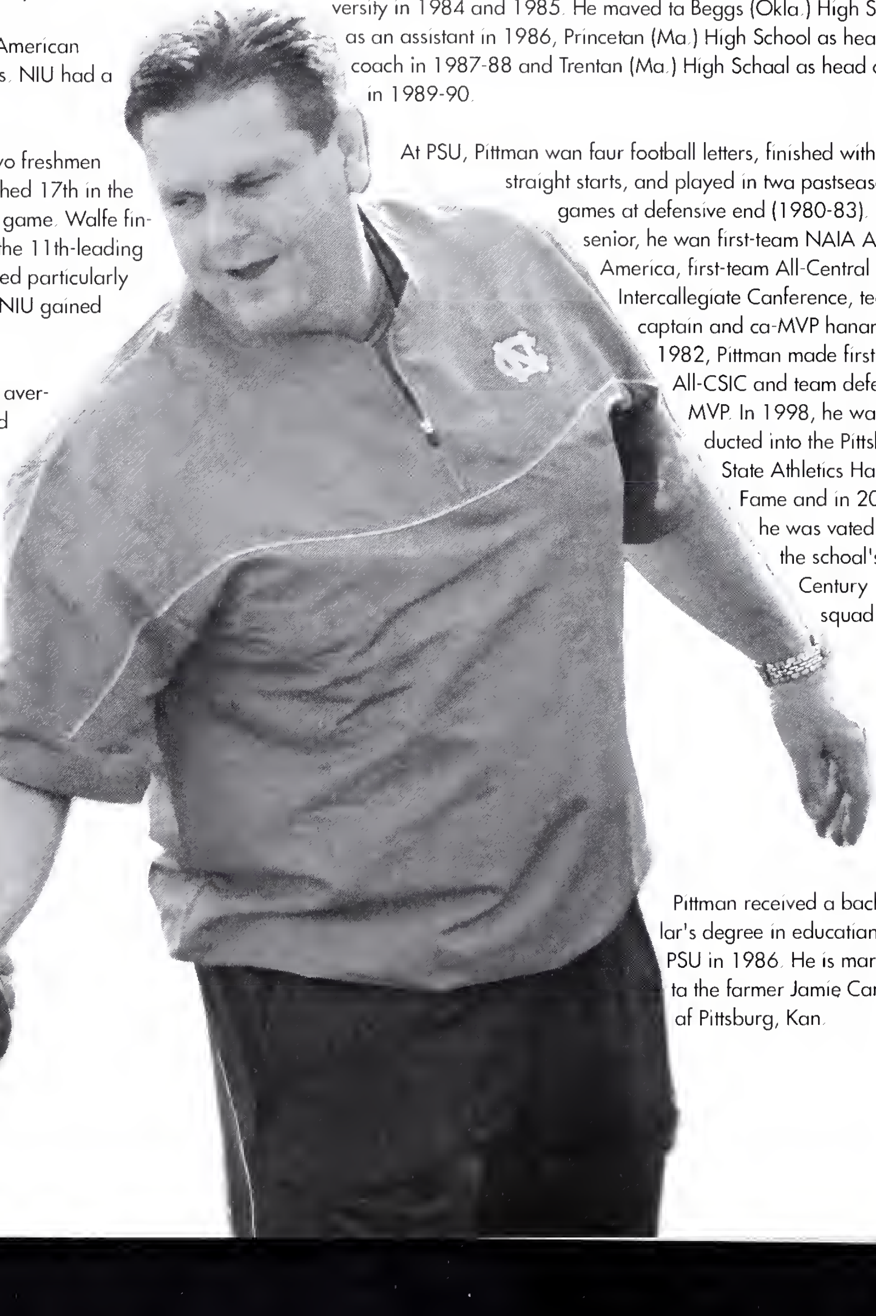
Pittman began his second term at Northern Illinois in 2003. That year, NIU finished 10-2 and beat Maryland and Iowa State and knocked off Alabama, 19-16, in Tuscaloosa. Pittman's line blocked for Michael Turner who finished second in the nation in rushing.

Pittman first coached at Northern Illinois from 1994-95 and produced a trio of All-Big West Conference talent, including All-America center Chris O'Neal. Pittman was the offensive line coach under John Blake at Oklahoma from 1996-98 where he coached first-round draft pick Stockar McDougle. Pittman has also worked with the offensive lines at Cincinnati (1996), Western Michigan (1999), Missouri (2000) and Kansas (2001).

Before NIU, Pittman produced an 11-9-1 record as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1992-93. His 1993 team earned the school's first bowl bid n 23 years at the Valley of the Sun Bowl in Phoenix.

Pittman began his career as a student coach at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1984 and 1985. He moved to Beggs (Okla.) High School as an assistant in 1986, Princeton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1987-88 and Trenton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1989-90.

At PSU, Pittman won four football letters, finished with 35 straight starts, and played in two postseason games at defensive end (1980-83). As a senior, he won first-team NAIA All-America, first-team All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference, team captain and co-MVP honors. In 1982, Pittman made first-team All-CSIC and team defensive MVP. In 1998, he was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was voted to the school's All-Century squad.



Pittman received a bachelor's degree in education from PSU in 1986. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad of Pittsburg, Kan.

John Shoop enters his first season as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Shoop comes to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He was Oakland's quarterbacks coach in 2005, the tight ends coach in 2006 and was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2006 season.

Shoop spent the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. He worked five seasons (1999-2003) for the Chicago Bears under head coach Dick Jauron, including three as the offensive coordinator (2001-03). Shoop was promoted to Chicago's offensive coordinator position after spending the 1999-2000 seasons as the Bears quarterbacks coach. At the time, he was one of the youngest coordinators in NFL history.

In his first season as the coordinator in Chicago, Shoop revitalized the Chicago offense and helped lead the Bears to the NFC Central Division title with a 13-3 record. That season, tailback Anthony Thomas earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after setting a Bears' rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards, and quarterback Jim Miller had his most productive season as a pro.

Under Shoop's direction in 2002, the Bears offense produced Pro Bowl wide receiver Marty Booker, who became the first Chicago receiver to earn all-star game honors since 1971.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he began his NFL coaching career at the age of 25. Shoop was an offensive quality control assistant for the Panthers in 1995-96 where he was a member of a staff that led the team to the NFC Championship Game in 1996. He was then promoted to quarterbacks coach, serving in that capacity for Carolina from 1997-98.

Shoop began his coaching career as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth in 1991, then served as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt from 1992-94, where he also earned a master's degree in education.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for four seasons.

Shoop and his wife Marcia have a son, Sidney, and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth.

Tommy Thigpen
Assistant Coach
Linebackers
3rd Season at Carolina
10th Season Overall

A former All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina, Tommy Thigpen enters his third season as the Tar Heels' linebackers coach. An exceptional recruiter, Thigpen was recently named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2007 by Rivals.com.

Thigpen tutored the team's leading tacklers in each of his first two seasons at Carolina. In 2006, former walk-on Durell Mapp led UNC with 87 tackles, and in 2005, linebackers Tommy Richardson and Larry Edwards tied for the team lead with 91 stops. Richardson was named honorable-mention All-ACC that season. Edwards had his best two seasons under Thigpen, leading the team in tackles for losses in 2005 and 2006. In 2005, Carolina also had to overcome the loss of starting senior middle linebacker Doug Justice in the second game of the year.

Thigpen was hired from Illinois, where he coached for two years and had been asked to remain on Ron Zook's Illini staff. He was the cornerbacks coach in 2003 and the linebackers coach in 2004.

Thigpen achieved accolades as a Parade All-America and Virginia Defensive Player of the Year at Potomac High School in Dumfries, Va.

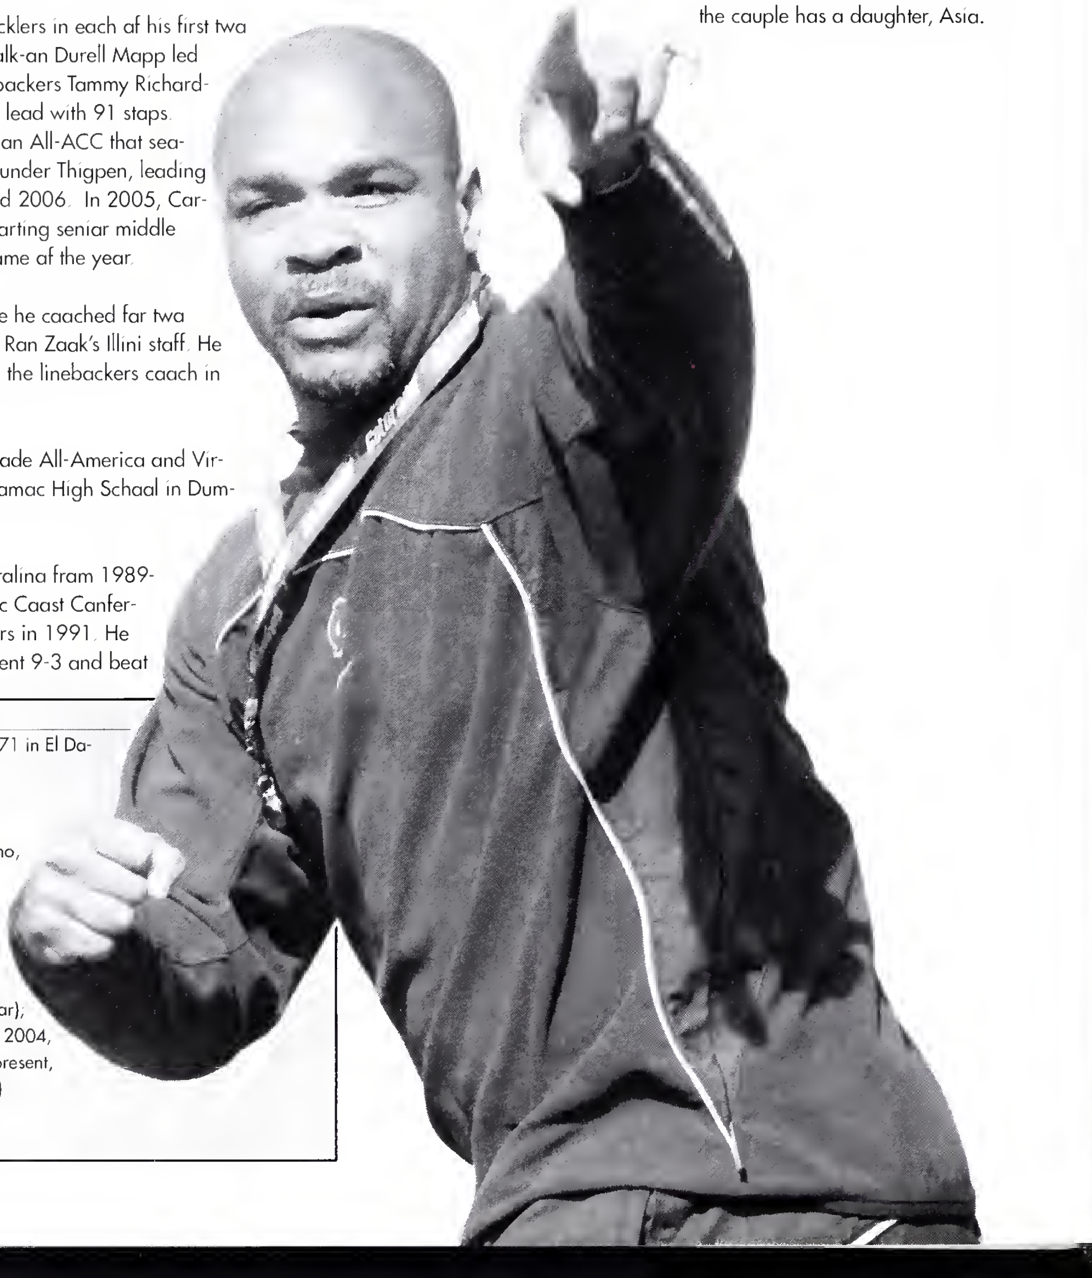
A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 1989-92, Thigpen was a three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference linebacker, earning first-team honors in 1991. He was co-captain of the 1992 team that went 9-3 and beat Mississippi State in the Peach Bowl, the first of seven straight bowl games for the Tar Heels in the 1990s. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Carolina.

Thigpen played professionally for the New York Giants in 1993-94 and the Barcelona Dragons in 1995-96.

He began his coaching career as a UNC graduate assistant in 1998-99. He then coached linebackers at Tennessee State in 2000. In 2001-02, he coached cornerbacks and was the special teams coordinator at Bowling Green State.

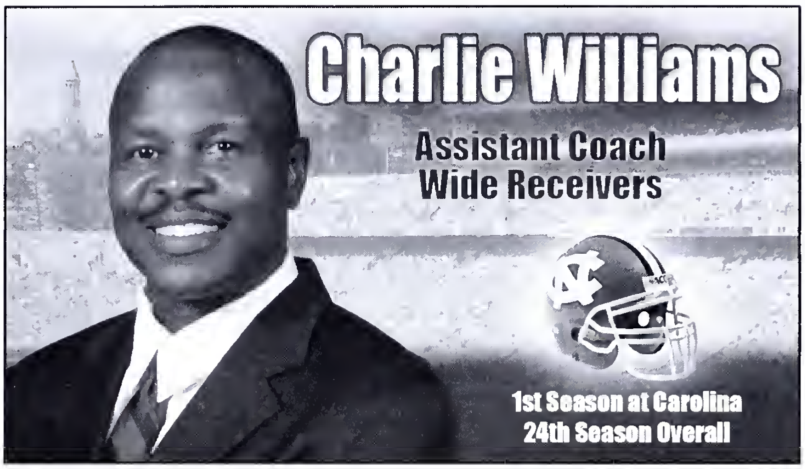
At Bowling Green, Thigpen helped coach one of the Mid-American Conference's top defenses, as the Falcons forced 27 turnovers to lead the MAC in turnover margin in 2002. BGSU also finished second in the MAC in pass efficiency defense. Thigpen's special teams also were impressive, blocking seven punts and a potential game-winning field goal attempt by Western Michigan to preserve the Falcons, early undefeated season.

Thigpen is married to the former Jacinda Webb and the couple has a daughter, Asia.



THE THIGPEN FILE

Date and Place of Birth: Born March 17, 1971 in El Dorado, Ark.
Family: Wife, Jacinda; daughter, Asia
Education: North Carolina, 1993
Playing Experience: 1989-93, North Carolina, linebacker
Coaching Experience: 1998-99, North Carolina (graduate assistant coach); 2000, Tennessee State (assistant coach/linebackers); 2001-02, Bowling Green (assistant coach/cornerbacks/special teams coordinator); 2003, Illinois (assistant coach/cornerbacks); 2004, Illinois (assistant coach/linebackers); 2005-present, North Carolina (assistant coach/linebackers)



Charlie Williams enters his first season as North Carolina's wide receivers coach. Williams, who coached wide receivers with head coach Butch Davis at the University of Miami, was most recently the wide receivers coach at Arizona from 2004-06.

A 22-year coaching veteran, Williams spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2001, tutoring standout performers such as Keyshawn Johnson, Reidel Anthony and Jacquez Green. Johnson was chosen to play in three Pro Bowls while Williams was his position coach. The 2000 and 2001 Tampa Bay offense set several franchise offensive records, and the team advanced to the playoffs four times during his tenure.

Prior to his NFL stint, Williams was wide receivers coach for three seasons at Miami, two under Dennis Erickson and one under Davis.

At Arizona, Williams developed Syndric Steptoe into a big-play threat. Steptoe was the Wildcats' leading receiver in 2006 with 55 receptions for 568 yards. Mike Williams, Arizona's second-leading receiver last year with 50 catches, set the freshman school record with 52 receptions in 2005.

Williams also coached one season for Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 2003, where he helped develop Troy Williams into a 2005 first-round NFL draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1993 and 1994, Williams coached Chris T. Jones, who led the Hurricanes in receiving both years and had a total of 90 catches for 1,462 yards. The 1993 Hurricanes (9-3) played Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl and Jones led Miami with six catches for 98 yards.

Williams was part of the 1994 Miami staff that led the Canes to a 10-2 finish and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Williams began his coaching career at Long Beach City College in 1984. He worked two years at New Mexico State (1986-87), four seasons at TCU (1988-91) and one year at Minnesota (1992) before joining the Miami program.

Williams played two years as a defensive back at Colorado State (1978-79). He and his wife Lisa, have two daughters, Sydney and Jada, and a son, Gregory.

Former North Carolina tight end John Dunn enters his fourth season at Carolina and second season as the Tar Heels' graduate assistant coach on offense in 2007. He worked in the UNC football video department in 2004-05.

Dunn walked on at Carolina in 2001 and played three seasons before his career was cut short by a neck injury. He played on the 2001 team that captured a Peach Bowl title with a 16-10 victory over Auburn. In 2003, he caught three passes for 31 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown reception against Syracuse.

A native of Hendersonville, N.C., Dunn worked two years for the Carolina football video staff in 2004-05. He graduated from Carolina in 2005 with a degree in exercise and sports science.

Shawn Terlecky
Graduate Assistant Coach Defense
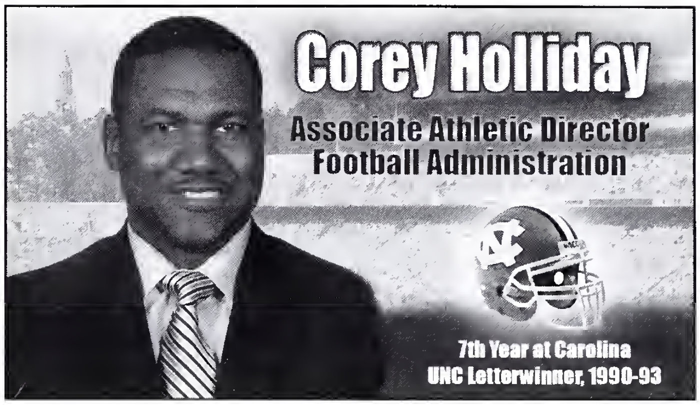
2nd Year at Carolina

Shawn Terlecky enters his second season as Carolina's graduate assistant coach on defense. Terlecky joined the UNC football staff in 2005 as a defensive video assistant.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Terlecky coached outside linebackers at his alma mater, Mercyhurst College, in Erie, Pa. He graduated with honors with a degree in Sports Organizational Management in 1997. Following graduation, he worked as an attendant counselor for the Trumbull County (Ohio) Family Court and as the coordinator of tournament operations for the Giant Eagle LPGA Classic in Warren, Ohio. He also earned his Juris Doctor degree from Capital Law School and served as an intern for the Franklin Country Prosecuting Attorney in Columbus, Ohio.

A native of Niles, Ohio, Terlecky played defensive back at Mercyhurst in 1995. His father, Bob, coached UNC freshman Anthony Elzy at Warren JFK.



Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his seventh year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Dick Baddour and head coach Butch Davis.

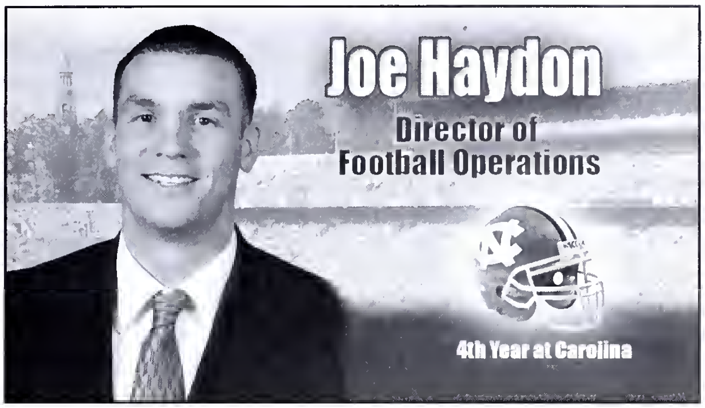
Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday still holds the Carolina career record for most receiving yards (2,447) and he is third in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

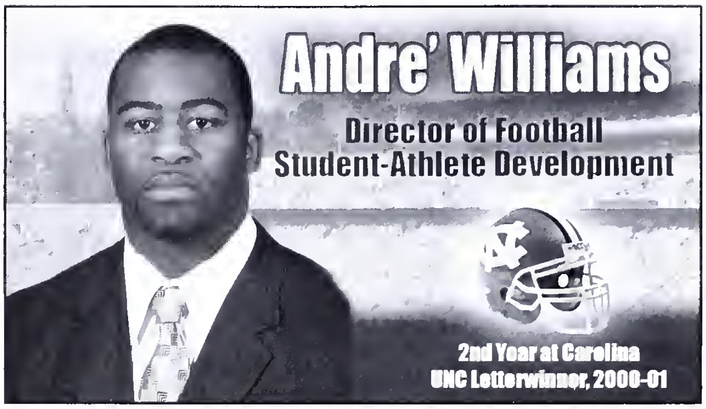
He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in Business Administration in 1993 and a Master's in Sports Administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher (4) and Nicholas (2).



Joe Haydon enters his fourth year with the Tar Heels and second as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate school. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006. Haydon, 30, is single and resides in Durham.



Andre' Williams, a former Tar Heel letterwinner, is in his second year as Carolina's Director of Football Student-Athlete Development. In that role, Williams works with the players in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing, community service projects and as a liaison with the academic support program and compliance office.

Williams lettered at Carolina in 2000 and 2001 before a back injury forced him to stop playing football. He was the Tar Heels' leading rusher in 2001 when Carolina went 8-5 and won the Peach Bowl over Auburn. He also earned Academic All-ACC honors in 2001.

Williams graduated from Carolina in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in management and society. He worked one year for the Atlantic Coast Conference office before returning to Chapel Hill to earn a Master's degree in sports administration. Williams, 26, is engaged to Shalya Higginbotham.

Carolina is one of the most widely recognized and respected athletic programs in the country, known both for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports. The leader of this 28-sport program is Goldsboro native Dick Baddour, who enters his 11th year as Director of Athletics and his 41st at the University of North Carolina.

In Baddour's 10 years as Director of Athletics, the Tar Heels have won 54 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, nine more than Duke, which is second. Nineteen different UNC men's and women's sports have won ACC titles during his tenure. Last season, five teams – baseball, men's and women's basketball, women's soccer and women's swimming and diving – won ACC titles, marking the seventh time in the last 10 years UNC led the league in the number of team championships. Women's soccer reclaimed the NCAA championship, and baseball and women's basketball advanced to their second straight College World Series and Final Four, respectively.

The Tar Heels finished third in 2006-07 in the US Sports Academy Directors' Cup and have averaged a sixth-place finish in the last six seasons. The Directors' Cup measures NCAA postseason performance. This was the eighth time in Baddour's tenure as athletics director that UNC was the highest finishing ACC school in the Directors' Cup. For the second year in a row, 24 of 28 teams qualified for NCAA postseason competition. It was the sixth consecutive year in which at least 20 Tar Heel teams participated in NCAA postseason play. Carolina also had national champions in men's and women's track and field and women's tennis (doubles).

"Dick Baddour is a man of integrity who is committed to fielding teams that demonstrate excellence in all aspects of University life," says Chancellor James Moeser.

The Carolina Leadership Academy, a training program for student-athletes, coaches and administrators initiated by Baddour, completed its third year. The program develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. The program has trained nearly 1,000 student-athletes and is considered an overwhelming success by Carolina's coaches and a national model.

During Baddour's tenure, the Tar Heels have won national championships in men's basketball, men's and women's soccer and field hockey, won two football bowl games and had numerous Top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. UNC has won 23 individual national titles in the last six seasons.

Baddour has hired head coaches in eight sports, overseen renovations or created plans to update virtually every facility in the athletic complex, expanded the direction and staffing for student-athlete services and worked tirelessly to set the program on sound financial footing. Last year, he hired Butch Davis, who returned the University of Miami to national prominence in the '90s, to lead the Carolina football program.

Baddour emphasizes academic achievement. Last year, 291 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, 329 made the Dean's List and every program fared well in the NCAA's APR.

Baddour has worked diligently to ensure a sound financial future for the athletics program. He worked out funding for several facility enhancement projects, scholarships and operating budgets. He also negotiated partnerships with Nike to outfit the athletic program, with Learfield Communications to direct UNC's multi-media properties, and with Wachovia for on-site sponsorship in the Smith Center. The Nike deal was widely praised as one of the most socially conscious contracts of its kind with respect to global labor issues. With regard to the Wachovia contract, Baddour was credited with working diligently over several years to balance the Carolina culture and the need for sound financial partnerships.

Currently, Baddour is overseeing major facility projects designed for Kenan Stadium, Boshamer Stadium, Carmichael Auditorium, sports medicine and wrestling.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have a daughter, Lauren, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Cary, is married to Kevin Snead.

James Moeser

arolina's ninth chancellor delivers results that matter most to the people of North Carolina.

In 2003, Chancellor James Moeser and Shirley Ort, associate provost and director of scholarships and student aid, worried that the state's brightest high school students from -income families believed they couldn't ord UNC. The University responded with Carolina Covenant, a groundbreaking iative to provide a debt-free UNC education qualified low-income students. More n two dozen similar initiatives have since gun at other leading U.S. universities. And May, the first Carolina Covenant scholars graduate.

iancellor since 2000, Moeser has made vice to the state a priority. In 2004, he gan his Carolina Connects initiative to engthen UNC's ties to North Carolina's ople and communities. By traveling the e, the chancellor highlights and enhances University's engagement. Visits focus on ies of education, health, and economic elopment—the issues citizens say are st important to them.

2005, Moeser convened a Task e on Engagement with North Carolina r concluding the University could do an n better job for the state. Now Carolina orking to increase the number of science mathematics teachers for public schools, and the professional health workforce, reach out to businesses, especially epreneurial companies. ■

CAROLINA→CONNECTS

K–12 education is a major focus of the University's public service and engagement efforts. Chancellor Moeser regularly visits the state's public schools as part of his "Carolina Connects" initiative to demonstrate the University's commitment to serving the people and communities of North Carolina.

> "We want this University to be the best that it can be to help make North Carolina as successful as possible. Every day, faculty, staff and students shape their teaching, research and public service priorities to meet the most pressing needs in every region and all 100 counties."

Expanded Access and Affordability
With the launch of the Carolina Covenant, the University has led other universities in a movement to provide a debt-free education to low-income students.

$2 Billion+ and Counting
The Carolina First Campaign is the most successful fund-raising effort in University history, far exceeding the $440 million raised in the Bicentennial Campaign.

Building for Tomorrow
The higher education bond referendum in 2000 is transforming the campus with more than $515 million for renovations and new buildings. The University has tripled the state's investment with gifts and grants to create the nation's largest campus building program.

Solutions for the Future
Carolina faculty attracted $593 million in research funding last year. Their research helps to cure diseases, bring innovation to industry, and spin off businesses that create new jobs for the state.

A CAROLINA SCHOLARSHIP IS ABOUT MUCH MORE THAN WHAT HAPPENS ON THE FIELD

That's where Tar Heel student-athletes are in the public eye, of course. That's when we see them wearing their uniform, when they are stamped as Tar Heels across the chest.

Receiving a scholarship to Carolina means meeting a handful of new teammates—and a world full of new classmates. It means remembering the many victories, because part of coming to Carolina means being a winner. But it also means remembering the children they met during their holiday shopping project, the sign a fan made for them at one of their games, and the professor in that 8 a.m. class that made them want to get out of bed early every morning.

These student-athletes are afforded this opportunity because of The Rams Club. Each year, donors from across the country—alumni, fans and supporters—provide scholarships that enable more than 450 deserving young men and women to be Tar Heels for a lifetime.

THE RAMS CLUB

Be a part of a student organization that is a vital contributor in maintaining Carolina's national prominence in 28 varsity sports. Current students at Carolina can become involved with The Rams Club the moment they enroll at UNC. For an annual donation of $25, current students will enjoy many benefits including a 2007 Student Ram T-shirt, Tar Heel Monthly magazine, halftime refreshments and snacks in the Lettermen's Room at Kenan—and all the other benefits of a $200 level member. As a Student Ram, you will begin to earn valuable priority points that can provide you ticket privileges as a Young Alumni Rams Club member after your time at Carolina.

THE RAMS CLUB

The Rams Club helps support Carolina's broad-based program of 28 varsity sports—offering scholarships to more than 450 student-athletes each year. That level of support allows these student-athletes opportunities to compete at the highest level and to earn a degree from one of the nations finest public universities.

To provide such important opportunities requires incredible commitment from a generous group of donors. Rams Club members consistently meet the challenge to provide scholarships, facilities and other means of support. By meeting the challenge, Rams Club members allow Carolina to continue to be a leader in college athletics—and a model for how an athletics program should approach the student-athlete experience.

"UNC fans know that the Carolina experience begins before your first trip to campus. For most students though, that experience takes a significant step with the first Saturday of football in Kenan—watching your fellow students compete on the football field and realizing you truly are a Tar Heel. Having you dressed head-to-toe in Carolina Blue and cheering as loud as you can—that is CAROLINA."

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 60,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. One national sports magazine rated Kenan one of the five best places in America to watch a college football game. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The addition of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the North Side Stadium Preferred Seating Box in 1997 have further enhanced the stadium's status as a campus landmark.

The Kenan Football Center houses the Carolina football program, including the locker rooms, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The players who have been honored by placing their names and numbers on display in the stadium are also featured in the Hall of Honor. Special plaques, flags and an audio-visual presentation on each player are highlighted.

The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcam. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Dan McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, ties the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center, making fan movement around the stadium much easier. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The renovation and expansion project was financed through a combination of private contributions through the Educational Foundation and bonded indebtedness from the athletic department through the sale of revenue-generating bonds. The Educational Foundation and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The most recent additions to Kenan Stadium are two ribbon videoboards on the facade of the North and South side upper levels. In 2003, a $2 million scoreboard at the east end of the stadium was added. The scoreboard was financed through an agreement with Learfield Communications, UNC's multi-media rights holder. The $2-million-figure includes the cost of the video board, installation and a new public address system. Over 40 new speakers were added throughout Kenan Stadium.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box are the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf includes an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrove Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the North Side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 249-162-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997 and 60,000 in 1998.

At the East end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

2006 Review

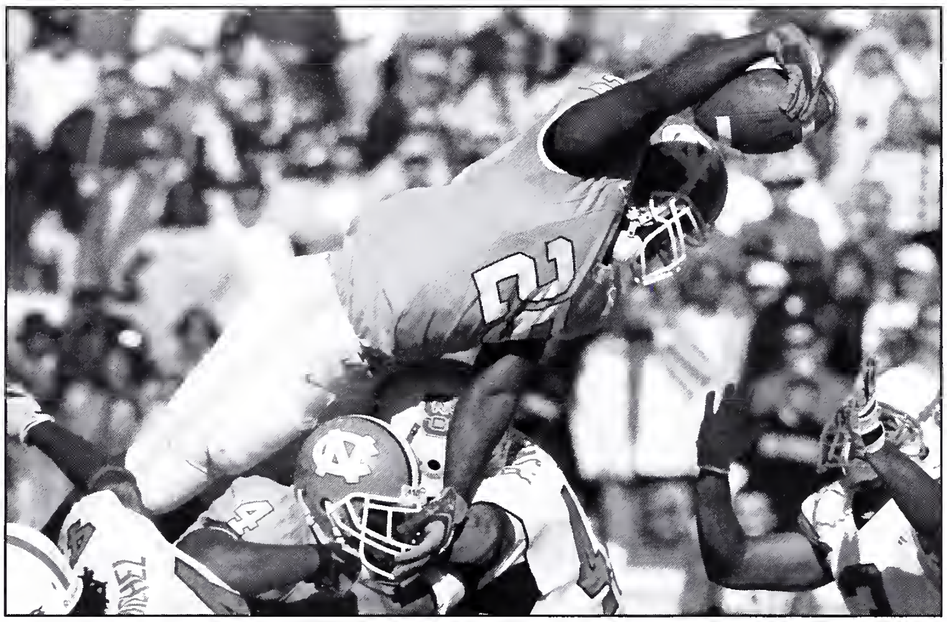
North Carolina Tar Heels



Tailback Ronnie McGill and the Tar Heels closed out the season with two straight victories, including a 23-9 win over NC State.

- North Carolina entered the 2007 season with high hopes of returning to a bowl game after narrowly missing out on postseason play the previous year. However, the Tar Heels opened the season with a 21-16 loss to Rutgers at Kenan Stadium and never recovered. The only victory in the first nine games came against Division I-AA Furman, 45-42. Carolina closed out the year with wins over in-state rivals NC State and Duke to finish 3-9 overall, 2-6 in the Coastal Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Six-year head coach John Bunting was dismissed days after a 23-0 loss at Virginia that dropped the Tar Heels to 1-6, but coached the remainder of the season. He was replaced by former Miami Hurricanes and Cleveland Browns coach Butch Davis on Nov. 13, 2006.
- Carolina's win over NC State was its third straight over the Wolfpack and its 11th in the last 14 meetings. Carolina's win over Duke was its fourth straight over the Blue Devils and its 16th in the last 17 meetings.
- Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks set a school freshman record with 39 receptions for 660 yards. The previous record of 38 was established by Kory Bailey in 1999. Nicks was named a freshman All-America by The Sporting News and Rivals.com. Nicks had his best game of the season at Notre Dame, catching six passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns. In the season finale against Duke, he posted his second 100-yard receiving game of the year with 117 yards on seven receptions. He scored the first touchdown of the game on an 83-yard scoring pass from Joe Doiley, which was the fifth-longest pass play in school history. He led all ACC freshmen in receptions per game (3.6) and yardage (60.0).
- Kick returner Brandon Tote finished second in the country in 2006 with 902 kickoff return yards. He became one of just nine players in NCAA history to return a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown in the win over Duke. Tate set the single-season school record with three touchdowns on kick returns in 2006 (two kickoffs and one punt).
- Tailback Ronnie McGill finished his career ranked 10th all-time at Carolina with 2,393 rushing yards. He ranks eighth at UNC with 24 rushing touchdowns. As a senior, McGill led the team with 790 rushing yards and seven touchdowns. He also caught 15 passes for 148 yards and a touchdown.
- Wide receiver Jesse Halley finished his career ranked eighth all-time at Carolina with 1,760 receiving yards. He also ranks eighth with 126 career receptions.
- Senior safety Koreen Toylor led the team with five interceptions for 96 yards. Taylor finished his career with a school-record 206 interception return yards.

Rutgers 21, Carolina 16
September 2, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Ray Rice rushed for 201 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, and Rutgers withstood a late scare from North Carolina and beat the Tar Heels 21-16.

Rice had 128 yards by halftime, finished with touchdown runs covering 2, 7 and 10 yards and became the first Rutgers rusher with three consecutive 100-yard games since Jacki Crooks did it in 1998.

Mike Teel was 14-of-20 passing for 145 yards for Rutgers (1-0), which began its season with a win for the fourth time in coach Greg Schiano's six seasons.

But in this one, the Scarlet Knights had to sweat out a late comeback bid by North Carolina.

Rutgers led 21-10 midway through the fourth quarter before the Tar Heels closed to within five points on Joe Dailey's 2-yard touchdown pass to freshman Hakeem Nicks with 5:09 remaining. They went for 2, but Dailey's pass was intercepted by Joe Porter.

North Carolina had one last chance when it forced a punt, got the ball back at its own 27 and advanced to the Rutgers 29. But Dailey's third-down pass was intercepted by Manny Collins, and the Scarlet Knights ran out the final 1:52.

North Carolina (0-1) came in determined to prevent Brian Leonard, the Scarlet Knights' do-it-all fullback, from beating them, and they succeeded, limiting him to 25 yards rushing on six carries and four receptions for 20 yards.

But that focus on Leonard enabled Rice to have one of the best games of his career.

Dailey, a Nebraska transfer, was 24 of 36 passing for 234 yards in his first start for the Tar Heels, but was intercepted twice by Collins.

Ronnie McGill led the Tar Heels with 94 yards rushing on 14 carries. Brooks Foster caught six consecutive passes from Dailey and finished with 11 receptions for 120 yards.

Virginia Tech 35, Carolina 10
September 9, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -It felt just like old times for Virginia Tech. The 16th-ranked Hokies blocked a punt, forced a fumble and returned an interception for a touch down.

For one day, anyway, Beamerball was back.

The Hokies' dominating defense and special teams set up two of Branden Ore's three TDs in Tech's 35-10 victory over North Carolina.

Ore finished with 111 yards and scoring runs of 1, 4 and 3 yards. Virginia Tech (2-0, 1-0 ACC) improved to 9-0 in ACC road games since joining the league in 2004.

Xavier Adibi returned an interception 40 yards to set up Ore's first touchdown. Josh Morgan blocked a punt inside the North Carolina 10 to set up another, and Brenden Hill scored on a 69-yard interception return.

North Carolina outgained Virginia Tech 268-224, but it was the Hokies' punishing defense and special teams that made the difference.

Tech intercepted four passes, recovered a fumble, blocked a punt in its second straight game and victimized North Carolina punter David Wooldridge for the second year in a row.

Sean Glennon, a sophomore making his second career start, was 10-of-17 for 66 yards for Tech. Redshirt freshman Ike Whitaker, Glennon's backup, completed his only pass - a 41-yard touchdown to Greg Boone with about five minutes left.

Dailey was 10-of-17 for 55 yards and was intercepted twice for the Tar Heels (0-2, 0-1). His backup, redshirt freshman Cam Sexton, was 9-of-21 for 120 yards and was picked off twice, including the fourth-quarter interception Hill returned for a score. The Tar Heels have eight turnovers in two games.

Carolina 45, Furman 42
September 16, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Ronnie McGill ran for 114 yards and had four touchdowns and Cam Sexton threw for two scores in his first career start to help North Carolina beat Furman 45-42 in an exciting night game at Kenan Stadium.

McGill ran for three scores and also had a 58-yard TD catch from Sexton on the third play for the Tar Heels (1-2).

Jerome Felton ran for 67 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Division I-AA Paladins (2-1). Furman bounced back from a horrible start and led 35-31 midway through the fourth quarter before the Tar Heels got some big plays in the final minutes to earn their first win of the season.

Sexton threw for 265 yards and found Jesse Holley downfield for a 50-yard touchdown strike that put the Tar Heels ahead to stay at 38-35 with 9:30 left. McGill then sealed it by leaping over the line for a 1-yard TD run with 1:53 to play.

Behind McGill and Sexton, the Tar Heels finished with 446 total yards and 20 first downs. That was just enough to offset an impressive showing from Furman's offense, which finished with 521 yards and 30 first downs. Furman was trying to repeat its surprising 28-3 win here in 1999, the program's only victory in 16 games against I-A opponents since 1987.

Sexton had only one interception and completed 14 of 20 passes, none bigger than his scoring toss to Holley on a third-and-14 from midfield.

Clemson 52, Carolina 7
September 23, 2006
Clemson, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) -James Davis had four of Clemson's seven rushing touchdowns in the 19th-ranked Tigers 52-7 victory over North Carolina.

On a day the Tigers (3-1, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) honored their 1981 national champions, Clemson's latest group showed power running and teeth-rattling defense - a Clemson trademark that No. 1 season - works in any era.

Davis led the way with scoring runs of 1, 1, 10 and 2 yards. C.J. Spiller, a freshman, added TD runs of 7 and 2 yards, while Reggie Merriwether, a senior, had a 1-yard touchdown run against the Tar Heels (1-3, 0-2).

Davis carried for 49 yards total on Clemson's opening drive, scoring from 1 yard out to finish things. Two series later, after Clemson's Crezdon Butler recovered Brandon Tate's fumbled kickoff return on North Carolina's 9, Davis was at it again, scoring from a yard away as Clemson led 21-0 in the first quarter.

Not that the Tigers needed more points the way their defense took over. The Tar Heels and freshman quarterback Cam Sexton managed only three first downs and 2 yards rushing the first half.

Sexton broke the shutout with a 4-yard keeper with 10:30 left in the game. By that time, things were way out of North Carolina's control, and it endured its worst loss since a 59-7 defeat by Maryland four years ago.

Davis had 95 yards on 15 carries, and Clemson ended with 324 yards on the ground, the first time it cracked the 300-yard rushing mark since a 59-31 win over Duke in 2001. The Tigers' rushing TDs were well off the school record of 11, set against Presbyterian in 1948.

Miami 27, Carolina 7
October 7, 2006
Miami, Fla.

MIAMI (AP) -Javarris James had a 62-yard touchdown run for Miami's longest play of the season, finishing with 111 yards to help the Hurricanes beat North Carolina 27-7.

Starting safety Lovon Ponder threw a touchdown pass to Sam Shields on a trick play and Charlie Jones had a 1-yard touchdown run for Miami (3-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Kyle Wright completed 13 of 21 passes for 143 yards for Miami before sitting out the fourth quarter. Tight end Greg Olsen matched a career high with eight catches for 95 yards for the Hurricanes.

Ronnie McGill had a 2-yard touchdown run for North Carolina (1-4, 0-3), while quarterback Cam Sexton completed 9 of 28 passes for 136 yards and was intercepted twice - mistakes that led to 10 Miami points.

North Carolina beat Miami two seasons ago in Chapel Hill 31-28, then held a 16-7 halftime edge in its visit last season hefore falling at the Orange Bowl - but another upset bid never materialized.

Miami outgained North Carolina 324-244 and outscored the Tar Heels 17-0 in the final 31 minutes.

James' run was the deciding blow.

He burst through the right side of the line, then made a nifty move to avoid safety Cooter Arnold's last-ditch tackle attempt inside the North Carolina 5 with 9:27 left in the third to give Miami a 24-7 lead. Since hecoming Miami's starter, James has 259 yards in two games.

Miami used some trickery to open the scoring.

One play after North Carolina punted only to its own 37 late in the first quarter, Ponder got the hall near the left sideline and got Tar Heels cornerhack Quinton Person to hite on the play.

That freed Shields, who hauled in Ponder's pass for an easy touchdown - the first caught by a Miami receiver all season. Jon Peattie made it 10-0 midway through the second quarter with a 39-yard field goal.

South Florida 37, Carolina 20
October 14, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Ricky Ponton returned from a six-game suspension and ran for 101 yards and two touchdowns to carry South Florida to a 37-20 victory over North Carolina.

Ponton was one of three players suspended by South Florida (5-2) before the season for violation of unspecified school policy.

North Carolina (1-5) dropped its third straight game. After the Tar Heels took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, quarterback Cam Sexton missed nine straight passes. He threw a touchdown pass to Jon Hamlett with 33 seconds left in the third quarter, and Connor Barth kicked two field goals, including a career-long 52-yarder earlier in the period.

South Florida countered Ronnie McGill's 15-yard scoring run midway through the first quarter with Taurus Johnson's 19-yard touchdown run on a reverse with 1:13 left in the period.

The Golden Bulls converted two interceptions into touchdowns. After Stephen Nicholas' first career interception at the North Carolina 35, Matt Grothe tossed a 21-yard touchdown pass to S.J. Green with 12:03 left in the half.

Danny Verpaele's interception and 26-yard return set up Ponton's 1-yard burst with 9:10 left before halftime. Ponton had a 2-yard touchdown run midway through the third quarter.

Benjamin Williams capped a 71-yard drive off the opening kickoff in the second half with a 1-yard score, giving South Florida a 27-10 lead.

2006 Game Recaps North Carolina Tar Heels

Virginia 23, Carolina 0
October 19, 2006
Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Jason Snelling ran for 131 yards and a touchdown, Jameel Sewell was again sharp at quarterback and Virginia's defense played its best game of the season in a 23-0 victory over North Carolina.

Snelling carried 19 times against a defense that came into the game allowing more than 200 rushing yards per game, 113th out of 119 Division I-A schools. Sewell gained another 40 yards, including an 18-yard TD run, as Virginia (3-5, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) won its 13th consecutive home game in the South's oldest rivalry.

It was the 111th meeting, the fifth-oldest rivalry in the Division I-A.

North Carolina ran for 98 yards, passed for 84 and had eight penalties and 11 first downs.

Snelling had 61 yards by halftime and punished the Tar Heels all game. He had bruising runs of 25 and 17 yards, and a 5-yard touchdown run that capped the scoring.

Just as he had been a week earlier, when Virginia outscored Maryland 20-0 in the first half only to lose 28-26, Sewell came out sharp, showing signs that the coaching staff's patience with the redshirt freshman is starting to pay off. He finished the half 11-for-18, but had at least four other passes dropped, including one by Kevin Ogletree as he split defenders downfield with lots of open space in front of him.

The Cavaliers kept the Tar Heels off the board when Chris Cook caused a fumble by Ronnie McGill at the Virginia 21 and Jeffrey Fitzgerald recovered for the Cavaliers.

The Cavaliers drove deep into North Carolina territory three times in the first half, but came away only with field goals of 31, 43 and 43 yards by Chris Gould.

Wake Forest 24, Carolina 17
October 28, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Riley Skinner threw a 39-yard touchdown pass to Ken Moore and Jon Abbate intercepted a pass in the end zone to seal No. 24 Wake Forest's 24-17 victory over North Carolina.

Abbate picked off Joe Dailey on the game's final play after the Tar Heels drove to the Wake Forest 3 with 41 seconds left.

The Demon Deacons (7-1, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 17-14 before Sam Swank tied it with a 41-yard field goal on the second play of the fourth quarter.

Then, almost immediately, the Demon Deacons' defense helped its offense take the lead for good.

North Carolina was trying to get something going when Cam Sexton found fullback Nick Starcevic toward the right sideline. But Demon Deacons linebacker Stanley Arnoux stripped Starcevic and Josh Gattis recovered at the Tar Heels' 39.

On the next play, Skinner found Moore over the middle for the go-ahead touchdown.

North Carolina had one last chance to force overtime, converting two fourth downs on its final drive and advancing to the 3 on Dailey's 44-yard sideline pass to Hakeem Nicks. But three plays later, Abbate stepped in front of Dailey's final pass.

Moore, who also rushed 34 yards on a reverse for a TD, finished with six receptions for 82 yards to lead the Demon Deacons.

North Carolina (1-7, 0-5) was playing its first game since the firing of coach John Bunting, effective at the end of the season, and the Tar Heels fell to 0-7 against I-A opponents.

Ronnie McGill had 100 of his 117 yards rushing in the first half.

Notre Dame 45, Carolina 26
November 4, 2006
Notre Dame, Ind.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) - Brady Quinn passed for four touchdowns and a season-high 346 yards to help No. 11 Notre Dame overcome breakdowns on defense and special teams and beat North Carolina 45-26.

It appeared for a while the Fighting Irish would put the game away early, breaking a 7-7 tie with a pair of touchdowns and a field goal to move ahead 24-7. But the Irish gave up a 90-yard kickoff return by Brandon Tate and a 72-yard touchdown catch by Hakeem Nicks.

The Tar Heels (1-8) fell to 1-16 all-time against the Irish.

Unlike a week earlier, though, when the game against No. 22 Wake Forest went down to the final play, the Tar Heels never really threatened.

The 26 points by the Tar Heels were the most against a Division I-A opponent this season. The Irish defense was burned by big plays, as it has been all season.

On North Carolina's first scoring drive, the Irish gave up a 35-yard run by Ronnie McGill and a 21-yard pass from Joe Dailey to Nicks, who had six catches for 171 yards.

Samardzija had six catches for 177 yards and a touchdown. It was his 23rd career touchdown catch, breaking the school record set by Derrick Mayes in 1995.

Quinn, who completed 23-of-35 passes, also threw an 11-yard TD pass to John Carlson and TD passes of 7 and 14 yards to McKnight. Darius Walker run for 86 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

Dailey, who started and played most of the game, was 14 of 22 passing for 213 yards. McGill ran for 61 yards on 13 carries as the Tar Heels managed just 248 yards total offense - 128 of that coming on three plays.

2006 Game Recaps North Carolina Tar Heels

Georgia Tech 7, Carolina 0
November 11, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Tashard Choice ran for 119 yards and a touchdown to help No. 19 Georgia Tech beat North Carolina 7-0, clinching a spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference championship game.

Choice had 32 carries and also had 32 yards receiving on a sluggish offensive day for the Yellow Jackets (8-2, 6-1 ACC), who won three straight to wrap up the Coastal Division title. Georgia Tech will face the Atlantic Division winner in the league's second title game in Jacksonville, Fla., on Dec. 2.

The Tar Heels (1-9, 0-6) fought the entire way, making Georgia Tech work for just about everything.

Ultimately, Choice's 3-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter to cap a 20-play, 83-yard drive - which spanned 10 1/2 minutes - proved to be enough. The drive was the longest this season in the ACC in terms of number of plays and time.

The Yellow Jackets finished with 221 yards - the fewest allowed by North Carolina's defense all year - but converted 9 of 19 third-down opportunities to extend drives when they needed to most. That came in spite of a 10-for-24, 78-yard passing performance from Reggie Ball, who connected just three times for 13 yards with big-play wideout Calvin Johnson.

The Tar Heels couldn't take advantage of their defense's solid performance. Joe Dailey, who came in with seven interceptions in seven games, threw two in the end zone on consecutive drives late in the first half on what proved to be the Tar Heels' best scoring chances.

The Tar Heels had one last chance to tie the game, getting the ball back at their 18 in the final minute. But Dailey's fourth-down deep ball down the sideline for Hakeem Nicks sailed out of bounds, sealing it with 20 seconds left.

This loss marked the first time North Carolina has been shut out twice in one season since 1989.

November 18, 2006
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Ronnie McGill rushed for 101 yards and a touchdown, and North Carolina forced three turnovers in the fourth quarter of its 23-9 win over North Carolina State, giving coach John Bunting a win in his final home game.

Brian Rackley returned a fumble 2 yards for the game-sealing touchdown with 2:33 remaining for the Tar Heels (2-9, 1-6 Atlantic Coast Conference), who beat a Division I-A team for the first time this season.

Connor Barth kicked field goals covering 20, 37 and a personal-best 54 yards for North Carolina.

Daniel Evans was 22-of-41 for 261 yards for North Carolina State, but had three late giveaways. He first was intercepted by Quinton Person near midfield with 6:11 to play, and his second miscue was far more costly.

Trailing 16-9, N.C. State got the ball back inside its own 15 with about 3 minutes left and couldn't go anywhere. On fourth down, Evans scrambled and was hit at the 2 by linebacker Melik Brown, who knocked the ball loose, and Rackley snatched it up and scored the clinching touchdown.

Kareen Taylor finished off the Wolfpack by intercepting Evans' final pass at the 2 with about 1 minute remaining.

Joe Dailey was 8-of-15 for 137 yards for the Tar Heels, while McGill finished with his seventh career 100-yard performance and scored the game's only offensive touchdown on a 1-yard dive midway through the first quarter.

It was enough to help North Carolina snap a seven-game losing streak and earn a victory in its first game since Butch Davis was hired as Bunting's replacement. Bunting was fired Oct. 22 after a lopsided loss at Virginia.

The Wolfpack (3-8, 2-6) outgained North Carolina 341-260 but could manage only three field goals from John Deraney covering 22, 44 and 41 yards in losing its sixth straight game.

Carolina 45, Duke 44
November 25, 2006
Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) -Brandon Tate returned a punt 54 yards for the go-ahead touchdown and Kentwan Balmer blocked an extra point that would have forced overtime, giving North Carolina a 45-44 victory over Duke in John Bunting's final game as the Tar Heels' coach.

The Blue Devils nearly rallied from a 14-point deficit by scoring two touchdowns in the final 5 minutes, the second coming when defensive lineman Patrick Bailey intercepted Joe Dailey and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown with 2:49 to play.

But Balmer burst through the middle and blocked Randy DeSmyter's extra-point attempt, and the Tar Heels recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock to close Bunting's tenure at his alma mater with two straight victories over rivals North Carolina State and Duke.

Tate also returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and became the third player in school history to score on punt and kickoff returns in the same game for the Tar Heels (3-9, 2-6 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Dailey finished 20-of-31 for a season-high 253 yards with two long touchdowns for the Tar Heels.

Duke's Thad Lewis threw three of his career-high four touchdown passes to Tielor Robinson, and the two also hooked up on a two-point conversion attempt which tied it at 31-all with 1:21 left in the third quarter.

GEORGE BARCLAY, Guard, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, End, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC (below), Tackle, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a placekicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, End, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

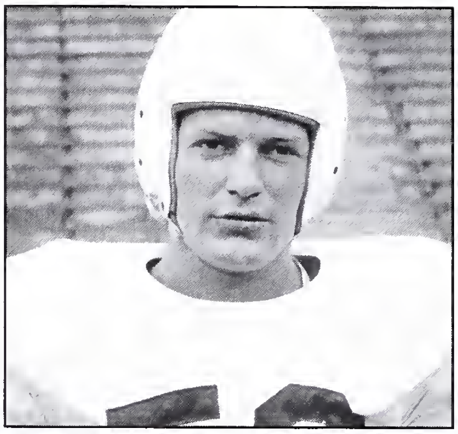
CHARLIE JUSTICE, Halfback, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and also ranks as the Tar Heels' fourth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 18th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.



KEN POWELL, Defensive End, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-Wold War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, End, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. His 106 career catches are the ninth-most in school history and until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, Center, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, End, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, End, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, Halfback, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

RON RUSNAK, Offensive Guard, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, Offensive Guard, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, Tight End, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

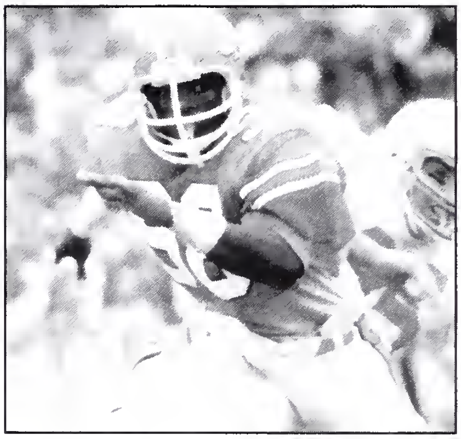
DEE HARDISON, Defensive Tackle, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, Defensive Back, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.



LAWRENCE TAYLOR (above), Outside Linebacker, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN (above), Offensive Guard, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER (above), Offensive Guard, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, Defensive Tackle, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

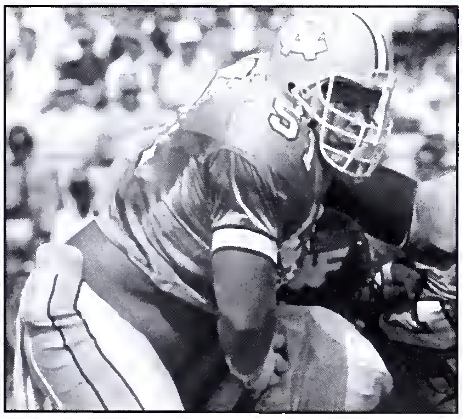
BRIAN BLADOS, Offensive Tackle, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

HARRIS BARTON, Offensive Tackle, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.



PAT CROWLEY, Offensive Guard, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, Free Safety, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, Defensive Tackle, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, Cornerback, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games, including three against Georgia Tech, two at Florida State and two at Virginia. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

GREG ELLIS, Defensive End, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, Outside Linebacker, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, Defensive End, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Trophy as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

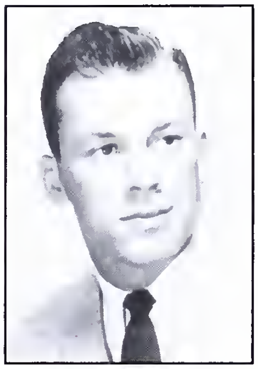
Charlie "Choo-Choo" Justice

North Carolina Tar Heels



Charlie Justice was more than just a great football player. He was a bonafide superstar...a hero...a legend in his own time. He had an impact on his home state that no other athlete had ever had before or few have had since.

During his four years in Chapel Hill, from 1946 to 1949, Justice helped guide the Tar Heels to three major bowls. For one week during the 1948 season Carolina was ranked as the nation's No. 1 college football team. The Tar Heels ended that year rated third, the best finish in school history.

It is no wonder then he was held in great esteem by everyone in the state. Certainly, the time was right for a hero like Charlie Justice. World War II had just ended and people wanted to turn their attention to more pleasant things. They wanted someone to help them forget the trauma they had just suffered. So they looked for heroes and they found Charlie Justice.

In his book, They Made the Bell Tower Chime, Bob Quincy summed up Charlie Justice's college career quite succinctly. An excerpt is repeated here:

The Justice era of 1946-49 was the most exciting in Carolina's football history. Charlie was the ringleader of a circus of thrills. He set the pace, but his backing was superb.

The Tar Heels operated from the single wing with the kinds of variations that at times resembled the Harlem Globetrotters' pre-game ball-handling act. The four seasons netted 32 victories, seven losses and two deadlocks, plus three major bowl appearances.

The 170-pound Justice was one of the nation's most sought-after players when he enrolled at Carolina. Some called him the hottest property in the history of football at that time. He had been a standout at Asheville's Lee Edwards High, leading the Maroons to two unbeaten seasons. He was All-Southern two years at Asheville, and as a member of the Shrine Bowl football team in 1942 he scored three touchdowns against South Carolina, a record that still stands.

The Navy became home for Charlie during the war years, and he became a phantom on a pro-studded Bainbridge Navy Squad. After two years of romping for Bainbridge against opponents across the country, he was a target for pro offers from the Philadelphia Eagles and Washington.

Charlie wanted an education, and scouts stayed in pursuit. He chose Chapel Hill after seriously considering South Carolina and Duke. An off-hand remark by Snavely—"I hope he comes out for football"—became a classic understatement.

In the Virginia game his freshman year he gained 170 yards in 17 carries with runs of 18, 40, and 56 yards. He had seen little practice because of a leg injury, but the Cavaliers were certain he carried a spare appendage.

Choo Choo (he acquired the name at Bainbridge when a gob remarked, "He runs along just like a choo choo train,") was excitement. He was all eagerness on the sidelines and all business when he moved into the tailback slot. He thrived on duty, and he was a master of the quick kick, a devastating rusher, a good passer, and a fake artist who could charm a cobra.

Jack Fitch, a thick-legged back who occasionally shared duty with Justice when not playing on the wing, sized up Charlie's style by noting, "Justice has the ability to be running at full speed, stop suddenly, and then be back at full speed almost instantly. He was never regarded as fast in terms of a track man. He had a change of pace that couldn't be matched, and he knew how to follow blockers as well as any back I've ever watched."

The Snavely system called for a spinning fullback, fakes and counter fakes, fullback pass plays and reverses. It was a dashing brand of football made more exciting by players' ability and maturity to accept Snavely's often complicated maneuvers.

A book, "Choo Choo", documents the career of Charlie Justice. He was a folk hero and deserved the special treatment. The great Benny Goodman and the late Johnny Long recorded the Campbell-Beebe song, "All The Way Choo Choo." It sold by the thousands.

Typical of Justice was the Georgia game of 1948. He scored three times against the Bulldogs in a 21-14 triumph, the climax being an 84-yard punt return. At mid-way point that season, the Tar Heels were ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Justice erased more records than a company of auditors during his four years at UNC. He scored 234 points and passed or ran for 64 touchdowns. As a ball carrier he accumulated 2,634 yards.

His total offense record of 4,883 yards lasted for 45 years until quarterback Jason Stanicek broke the mark in 1994. Justice, graciously, was on hand to congratulate Stanicek.

Justice seemed to peak when the traditional games were being played. He led the Tar Heels to four straight wins over Duke. He was an All-America mention as a freshman and made many of the major teams as a junior and as a senior. He was runnerup for the Heisman Trophy to Doak Walker of SMU in 1949.

Charlie's finest moment came in the College All Star Game of 1950 at Chicago's Soldier Field. He was voted the MVP of the game for good reason. The All-Stars walloped the Philadelphia Eagles, led by Steve Van Buren, 17-7. Justice gained 133 yards individually, or 48 more than the Eagles posted as a team. He set up a touchdown on a 60-yard pass from Eddie LeBaron.

Justice passed away in Cherryville on October 17, 2003. He was 79. The next day, Carolina played Arizona State at Kenan Stadium and the number 22 was painted at the 22-yard line in Justice's honor.

A statue of legendary Tar Heel Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice was dedicated in 2004.

In 1997, Greg Ellis (top left) became Carolina's first-ever finalist for the Lombardi Award. The other finalists that year were FSU's Andre Wadsworth (top right), Ohio State's Andy Katzenmoyer (bottom left) and the eventual winner, Nebraska's Grant Wistrom (bottom right).

Twenty-six former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been placed on the facade of Kenan Stadium's upper deck. The men honored include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

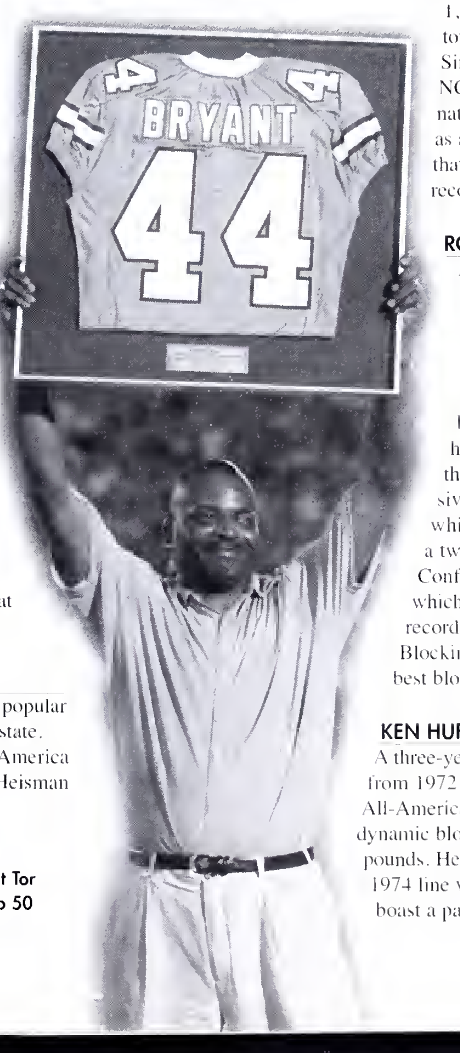
A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under Head Coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON McCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's NCAA-record 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.



Kelvin Bryant was one of eight Tar Heels selected to the ACC's Top 50 team in 2002.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and third in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game — a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year.

He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS, #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular-season title.

KELVIN BRYANT, #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON, #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. -He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS, #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

IRV HOLDASH, #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY, #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE, #20

The only ACC player and one of only four players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Bryant was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN, #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

1947 SUGAR BOWL

New Orleans, La.
Geargia 20, Caralina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

The Dawgs' Charley Trippi rushed for 77 yards, while Justice carried 18 times for 37 yards.

1949 SUGAR BOWL

New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Caralina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 COTTON BOWL

Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Caralina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 PEACH BOWL

Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 SUN BOWL

El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 SUN BOWL

El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 PEACH BOWL

Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 LIBERTY BOWL

Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 SUN BOWL

El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 PEACH BOWL

Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

1994 SUN BOWL

El Paso, Texas
Texas 35, Carolina 31
December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 CARQUEST BOWL

Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl. Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 GATOR BOWL

Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 PEACH BOWL

Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - Headed off the field on a stretcher with a broken leg, Paul Peterson heard the roar of the crowd and knew his teammates were about to score. He glanced up at the scoreboard just in time to see kicker Ryan Ohliger take a fake field goal into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown run that sealed Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis.

Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle a long the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play.

Peterson continued his trip to the locker room as the Eagles celebrated. X-rays showed a broken left tibia, and team officials said he would need surgery.

Before leaving, the quarterback went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns, helping Boston College win a bowl game for the fifth straight season.

The Eagles gave the Big East its first win in the 3-year-old bowl game. It was BC's final game in the league - it joins the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2005.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

North Carolina has played in 25 postseason bowl games, including nine in the last 13 years heading into the 2006 season. The Tar Heels are 12-13 all-time in bowl games and are 6-3 since 1990.

UNC is second behind Clemson in bowl appearances among schools that were charter members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the Tar Heels have the most appearances of any charter school since the league was formed in 1953.

Beginning with the Sugar Bowl in 1947, Carolina has played in 11 different bowl games. The Tar Heels are 5-2 in the Gator Bowl, 2-2 in the Sun, 1-0 in the Bluebonnet, 1-0 in the Carquest, 1-0 in the Continental Tire, 2-3 in the Peach, 0-1 in the Cotton, 0-1 in the Liberty, 0-1 in the Aloha and 0-2 in the Sugar.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Director of Football Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director John Martin. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Martin.

Best and Martin's office are located on the second floor of the Kenan Football Center. The Athletic Communications Office is located on the main level of the Dean E. Smith Center, less than one mile from Kenan Stadium. The office is on Level 2 directly across from the men's basketball office.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Carolina home football games should be made in writing on station/newspaper/magazine letterhead to Associate A.D. for Communications Steve Kirschner. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests may be sent via fax (919-962-0612) or e-mail (stevekirschner@unc.edu), but all requests should be sent so they reach the Athletic Communications Office at least one week prior to the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office. Those credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at the ticket window of Kenan Fieldhouse (old fieldhouse, East endzone). Will Call opens three hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. We ask, for the safety of others, that equipment not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Steve Kirschner. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the East Drive Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players will head directly to the interview area in the player's lounge on the second floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Head coach Butch Davis will conduct a short interview with Woody Durham for the Tar Heel Sports Network's live broadcast while the players are in the interview area. Davis will begin his postgame press conference in the Hall of Honor, approximately 15 minutes after the players have begun their interview period.

After night games, Davis and the players will be available simultaneously due to deadline demands. Quotes will be gathered from both Davis and several players for distribution in the press box. Away game procedures will vary, depending on available facilities.

Please note: Davis is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network. After night games, great care will be taken to get Davis to the general media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to Davis as quickly as possible.

PHONES

The Department of Athletics furnishes approximately 12 telephones along press row for media to file stories. All long distance calls must be by credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Anyone desiring a private phone should contact Bell South at least two weeks prior to the game. If you are calling from within the 919 area code, dial 780-2800. However, if you are calling from outside the 919 area code, then you must dial 1-800-919-2800.

Phone lines and ethernet access are available for use by photographers only in the main press area. UNC Director of Photography Jeffrey Camarati coordinates the photographer's work area.

Note: The on-campus building number for the press box at Kenan Stadium, for which you will be asked, is #519. List Steve Kirschner as the stadium contact for placing the phone.

Fax machines are available for media use. Media should make a representative of the Athletic Communications Office aware of their fax needs prior to the end of the game.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

The Kenan Stadium press box is wireless. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the internet by simply turning on their computers in the press box. Media also have access to the internet via ethernet jacks installed throughout the press box at Kenan Stadium.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH BUTCH DAVIS

Butch Davis will meet with the media at 11:30 a.m. each Monday prior to a game. Davis will meet with the print and TV media for approximately 30 minutes. Out-of-town media may access the print portion of the press conference by phone. You can listen and ask questions, time permitting, by using this service. Contact Kevin Best for the phone number.

Davis is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number. Davis will also be available via teleconference for 15 minutes on Sundays (day after games only) at 5 p.m. Contact Best for the number.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Kevin Best or John Martin. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted at the conclusion of practice at the practice field or Football Center. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Telephone interviews are conducted at the player's convenience. Usually they are handled by players returning calls immediately after practice (between approximately 6 and 7 p.m.). No home numbers for players will be given out and players have been told not to accept calls from anyone asking football-related questions.

Please do not show up and wait for players unannounced on campus, at players' housing or the Football Center. The players have been instructed to politely decline the request and refer the person to the Communications Office.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Note: Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Please wait at the tunnel (field side) leading into the lockerroom at the Kenan Football Center. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

TAR HEEL MONTHLY

Tar Heel Monthly is the premier magazine devoted to covering University of North Carolina athletics. Featuring insights from your favorite Carolina personalities like Lee Pace, Adam Lucas, and Jones Angell, the magazine is available on a complimentary basis to Rams Club members and on a subscription basis to non-members. Every glossy, full-color issue includes in-depth player and coach features you won't read anywhere else, insightful analysis, and an informative mix of award-winning columnists.

One-year subscriptions (12 issues, including the Tar Heel of the Year issue and the football and basketball previews) are available to non-Rams Club members by sending a check or money order for $36 to Tar Heel Monthly, 503 Meadowmont Ln., Chapel Hill, NC 27517, by calling 919-969-8140, or by subscribing online at www.tarheelmonthly.com. A story from each issue is also reprinted at TarHeelBlue.com. Tar Heel Monthly is published by Tobacco Road Media, Inc. The executive publisher is Adam Lucas, who has closely followed University of North Carolina sports for over 25 years. He is also a regular columnist for TarHeelBlue.com.

EXTRA POINTS

Extra Points, written and published by Carolina alumnus Lee Pace (AB Journalism, 1979), enters its 17th season offering an informative and unique view of Tar Heel football. The newsletter will appear at least three times a week throughout the football season at TarHeelBlue.com as well as other times where applicable--in particular before and after a bowl game, the recruiting period in early February and spring practice. Pace also serves as the sideline reporter on the Tar Heel Sports Network.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Ramshead Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

The Tar Heels Sports Network On Air Talent (l-r):
Lee Pace, Woody Durham, Jones Angell and Rick Steinbacher

Learfield Communications begins its eighth full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams, primarily football and basketball.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Marketing in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 32 other schools under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri, South Carolina and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sabba, the seven-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Marketing.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 19 years," adds Sabba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Marketing is in its 13th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Marketing is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSM brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio on Thursday night for "Butch Davis Live" and Monday for "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home.

Woody Durham, beginning his 37th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels," and Head Coach Butch Davis give fans an opportunity to phone in and talk with the Coach every Thursday evening during the football season on the "Butch Davis Live" call in show.

Durham also will visit with Coach Davis on "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring conversations with the Tar Heels' Head Coach. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," hosted by Durham, is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

WOODY DURHAM
"THE VOICE OF THE TAR HEELS"
37TH YEAR AT NORTH CAROLINA

A 2005 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Woody Durham enters his 37th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels" this fall.

Since September 1971, Durham has broadcast more than 1,600 Carolina football and basketball games, and the Tar Heels have won more than 72 percent of those games.

A native of Mebane, N.C., Durham grew up in Albemarle, N.C., where he began his broadcasting career with WZKY Radio at age 16. He graduated from UNC in 1963 with an AB degree in Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, and spent 19 years as a TV sportscaster with stints in Greensboro and Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill.

In 1981, Durham joined Tar Heel Sports Marketing, which produces the Tar Heel Sports Network, on a full-time basis, and in 1984, he permanently moved his family to Chapel Hill. He and his wife of 44 years, Jean, are the parents of two sons. Wes, 41, a former Georgia Sportscaster of the Year, is in his 13th year handling play-by-play duties at Georgia Tech, and his fourth year handling the play-by-play duties for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. Taylor, 34, is a network recruitment manager with International Sports Properties in Winston-Salem. Woody and Jean have eight-year-old twin grandchildren, Emily and Will.

Durham has been named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year on 12 different occasions, most recently in 2005. In fact, Woody and Wes were both honored by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in Salisbury on May 1, 2006. It was the fourth time Wes has been chosen the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year.

In 1993, Woody was inducted into the Stanly County Sports Hall of Fame. In 1994, he received the Priceless Gem Award from the UNC Department of Athletics. The following year, the General Alumni Association presented him with its Distinguished Service Medal. In November 2000, the UNC Board of Trustees honored him with the William R. Davie Award. During the 2002 ACC Basketball Tournament, he received the Marvin "Skeeter" Francis Award for special services to the ACC. In 2003, Durham was honored by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association, along with former Carolina football coach Bill Dooley, with the Russell Blunt Legends Award for being a true legend in athletics.

Durham was inducted into the North Carolina Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2004, honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the North Carolina broadcast industry. He also has received the Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster Award from the All-American Football Association (June, 2005).

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Durham also visits with Coach Butch Davis on "Inside Carolina Football," a daily five-minute radio program. He is with Coach Davis every Thursday evening during the football season for "Butch Davis Live," a radio call-in show which originates from Top Of The Hill restaurant in downtown Chapel Hill. He also hosts "Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," a weekly half-hour TV show on Fox Sports South.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

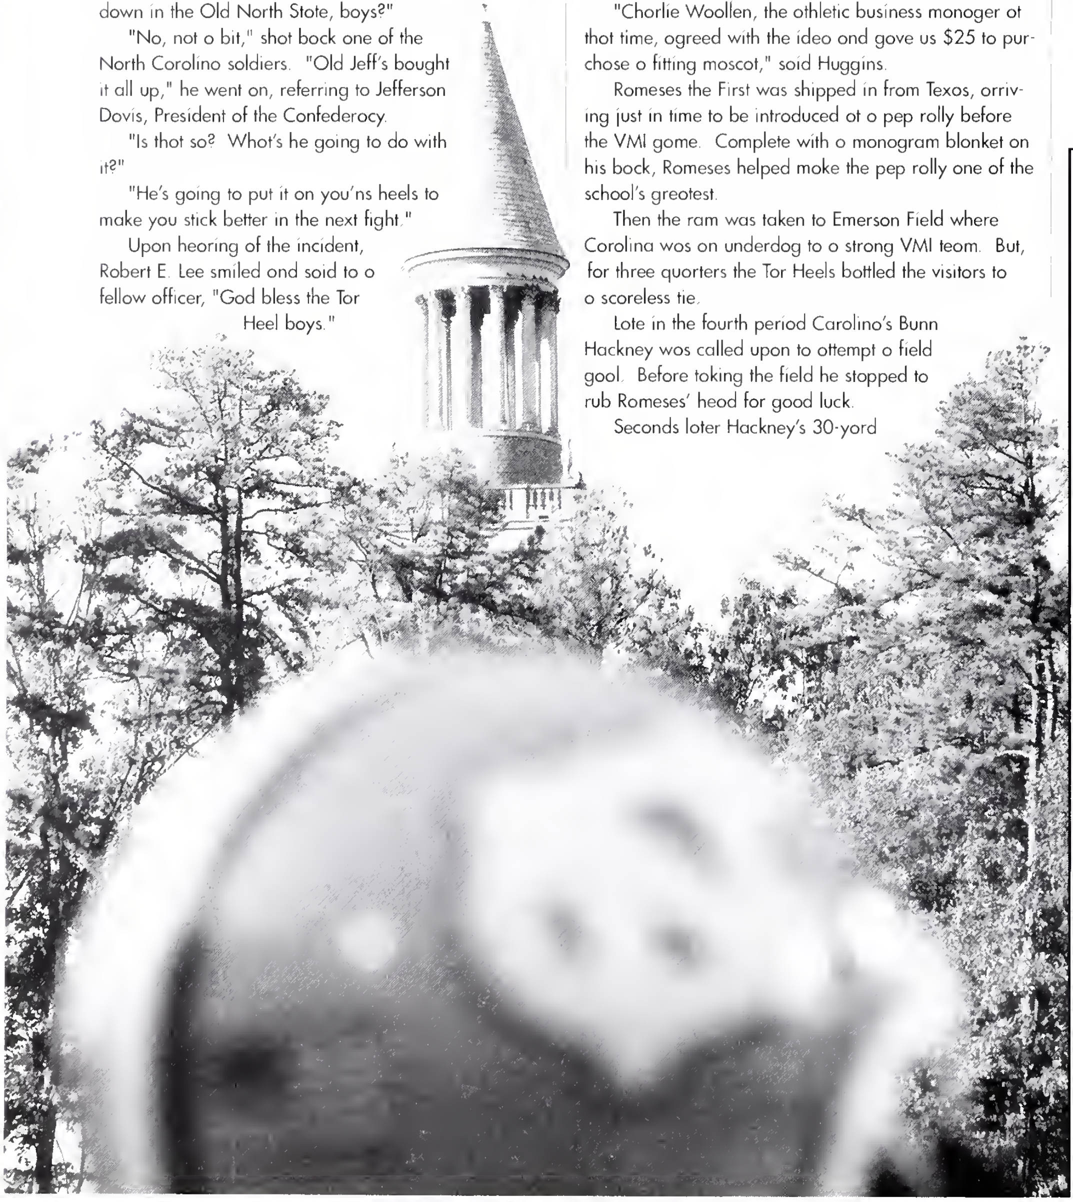
"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.



SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

NORTH CAROLINA & THE NFL

- North Carolina ranked 10th in The Wall Street Journal's Dow Jones College Football Success Index, a ranking of how succesful a program is at producing NFL players.
- North Carolina ranked 12th in the country last year with 29 former Tar Heels on active NFL rosters.
